

Master List of Fellowship/Grant Deadlines

---

1. Fulbright New Century Scholars: The University as Innovation Driver And Knowledge Center

Deadline: November 15, 2008

Award Amount: $30,000

Each year about 30 outstanding research scholars and professionals from the U.S. and abroad are selected as Fulbright New Century Scholars. For 2008-2009, the research theme is "The University as Innovation Driver and Knowledge Center." The distinguished Leader for the 2009 New Century Scholar Program is Dr. Miranda Schreurs, Director of the Environmental Policy Research Center and Professor of Comparative Politics at the Free University of Berlin. Fellows selected as New Century Scholars will conduct individual research, make an international exchange visit of 3 months, and participate in a program of seminars and exchange to engage in collaborative, multidisciplinary examination of the research theme. The Program will begin in May 2009 and conclude in April 2010.

<http://www.cies.org/NCS/>

---

2. Visiting Fellowships at the Bibliotheque et Archives Nationales du Quebec

Deadline: November 15, 2008

The Bibliotheque et Archives Nationales du Quebec support short- and Long-term residential stays with grants up to $5,000 to promote and support research on the library's heritage collections, which comprise documents published in Québec or relating to Québec, foreign books dating from before 1820 and collections of historical value (the Saint-Sulpice and Gagnon collections). Eligible fields of research would be history (including art history, the history of science, the history of ideas, and the history of printed works, collections, and libraries), literature, musicology, sociology, philosophy, anthropology, and any other field deemed relevant.

http://www.banq.qc.ca/portal/dt/a\_propos\_banq/prix\_concours/description\_reglements\_coordonnees/bourse\_France\_Quebec/bourse\_France\_Quebec.jsp

---

3. Doctoral Dissertation Fellowships in Jewish Studies

Deadline: December 12, 2008

Award Amount: $16,000

The Maurice and Marilyn Cohen Fund Doctoral Dissertation Fellowships in Jewish Studies are made for one academic year and are given for the final stages of completing a dissertation, typically in the fifth year of study. Applicants should be completed all doctoral requirements, except for the completion of their thesis, and must show evidence of being able to complete their thesis within the fellowship year.

<http://www.jewishculture.org/?pid=scholarship>

---

4. Dubai Initiative/Women and Public Policy Program Fellowship

Deadline: December 15, 2008

Award Amount: $34,000

The Dubai Initiative and the Women and Public Policy Program of the Kennedy School of Government are pleased to announce a postdoctoral residential fellowship in the area of gender and the Middle East. The fellowship will be awarded to an outstanding scholar conducting research with a particular focus on gender and the Middle East in any of the following areas: evolving issues of governance; U.S. foreign policy; security studies; economic policy; energy policy; innovations in governance; e-government; and government performance. This fellow must hold a Ph.D. by September 2009.

http://www.hks.harvard.edu/wappp/research/dubai\_fellowship.htm

---

5. The Institute of Historical Research (IHR) Mellon Fellowships in the Humanities

Deadline: January 16, 2009

Award Amount: $5,000

The Institute of Historical Research offers fellowships funded by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation for both pre-dissertation and dissertation research in the humanities using original sources. The purposes of this fellowship programme are to:

- Help doctoral candidates in the humanities who may otherwise not have opportunities or encouragement to work with original source materials in the United Kingdom;
- Help doctoral candidates in the humanities to deepen their ability to develop knowledge from original sources;
- Provide insight from the viewpoint of doctoral candidates into how scholarly resources can be developed most helpfully in the future.

<http://www.history.ac.uk/awards/#mellon>

---

6. Multi-Country Research Fellowship in Humanities, Social Sciences or Allied Natural Sciences

Deadline: January 16, 2009

Award amount: $9,000

The Council of American Overseas Research Center's (CAORC) Multi-Country Fellowship Program supports advanced regional or trans-regional research in the humanities, social sciences, or allied natural sciences for U.S. doctoral candidates and scholars who have already earned their Ph.D. Preference will be given to candidates examining comparative and/or cross-regional research. Applicants are eligible to apply as individuals or in teams.

<http://www.caorc.org/programs/multi.htm>

---

7. Harry S. Truman Dissertation Year Fellowship

Deadline: February 1, 2009

Award Amount: $16,000

Grants will be given to support graduate students working on some aspect of the life and career of Harry S. Truman or of the public and foreign policy issues which were prominent during the Truman years. One or two dissertation year fellowships will normally be awarded each year. Preference will be given to projects based on extensive research at the Truman Library.

<http://www.trumanlibrary.org/grants/#diss>

---

8. Library Science and/or Information Studies: Student Diversity Award

Deadline: March 1, 2009

Award Amount: $750

Eligibility: Students from a traditionally under-represented group who are currently enrolled in an accredited graduate program in Library Studies and/or Information Studies or have recently graduated (within 12 mos. of graduation) Purpose: To encourage multicultural students considering a career in art librarianship or visual resources to participate in the activities of ARLIS/NA.

<http://www.arlisna.org/about/awards/diversity.html>

---

9. Ethics in Public Communication Grants

Deadline: March 6, 2009

Award Amount: $1,000-$25,000

The Arthur Page Center for Integrity in Public Communications at Pennsylvania State University's College of Communications, will administer these grants. Grants will be given to scholars and professionals in all career stages to study ethics in public communications. Editors, journalists, public relations professionals, researchers, and scholars may apply. Doctoral candidates who have completed their coursework and exams and are at the dissertation-writing stage during the year of the award are also eligible.

<http://www.ethicshare.org/node/392537>

---

10. Entrepreneur Research: Kauffman Junior Faculty Fellowships

Deadline: Application submitted Online by noon on March 9, 2009

Award amount: $50,000 payable over two years

Nominations are now being accepted for the 2009-2010 Kauffman Junior Faculty Fellowship in Entrepreneurship Research. The Kauffman Foundation established the annual Kauffman Junior Faculty Fellowship in Entrepreneurship Research in 2008 to recognize tenured or tenure-track junior faculty members at accredited U.S. universities who are beginning to establish a record of scholarship and exhibit the potential to make significant contributions to the body of research in the field of entrepreneurship. The Kauffman Foundation awards up to five fellowships per year to junior faculty members from universities across the United States.

<http://www.kauffman.org/research-and-policy/kauffman-junior-faculty-fellowship-in-entrepreneurship.aspx>

---

11. John F. Kennedy Library Foundation Fellowships: Foreign Intelligence/ Presidency or a Related Field

Deadline: March 15, 2009

Award Amount: $2,500

Scholars are invited by the Kennedy Library to apply for the Marjorie Kovler Research Fellowship. This fellowship is administered by the John F. Kennedy Library Foundation from funds provided by the Marjorie Blum Kovler Foundation, one of Chicago's most prominent philanthropic organizations. The fellowship is intended to support a scholar in the production of a substantial work in the area of foreign intelligence and the presidency or a related topic. The successful candidate will develop at least a portion of her or his work from original research in archival materials from the collections of the Kennedy Library.

<http://www.jfklibrary.org/JFK+Library+and+Museum/Kennedy+Library+Foundation/Programs+and+Library+Support/Research+Grants+and+Fellowships/Marjorie+Kovler+Research+Fellowship.htm>

---

12. John F. Kennedy Library Foundation Fellowships: Immigration, Naturalization, or Refugee Policy

Deadline: March 15, 2009

Award Amount: $3,100

Scholars are invited to apply for the Abba P. Schwartz Research Fellowship. This fellowship is administered by the John F. Kennedy Library Foundation from funds provided by the family, friends, and colleagues of Abba Schwartz. Mr. Schwartz served in the Kennedy Administration as Assistant Secretary of State for Security and Consular Affairs. The fellowship is intended to support a scholar in the production of a substantial research work in the areas of immigration, naturalization, or refugee policy.

<http://www.jfklibrary.org/JFK+Library+and+Museum/Kennedy+Library+Foundation/Programs+and+Library+Support/Research+Grants+and+Fellowships/Abba+P.+Schwartz+Research+Fellowship.htm>

-----

13. John F. Kennedy Library Foundation Fellowship: Domestic Policy, Political Journalism, Polling, Press Relations or a Related Topic

Deadline: March 15, 2009

Award Amount: $3,600

Scholars are invited to apply for the Theodore C. Sorensen Research Fellowship. This fellowship is administered by the John F. Kennedy Library Foundation from funds provided by Mr. Sorensen, who headed John F. Kennedy's staff during his eight years as a senator and served as his Special Counsel during his three years as president. It is intended to support a scholar in the production of a substantial work in the areas of domestic policy, political journalism, polling, press relations or a related topic. The successful candidate will develop at least a portion of her or his work from original research in archival materials from the collections of the Kennedy Library.

<http://www.jfklibrary.org/JFK+Library+and+Museum/Kennedy+Library+Foundation/Programs+and+Library+Support/Research+Grants+and+Fellowships/Theodore+C.+Sorensen+Fellowship.htm>

-----

14. Gerald R. Ford Library Foundation Research Travel Grants

Deadline: March 15, 2009, September 15, 2009

Award amount; $2,000

The Gerald R. Ford Foundation awards grants of up to $2,000 each in support of research in the holdings of the Gerald R. Ford Library. A grant defrays travel, living, and photocopy expenses of a research trip to the Ford Library. Overseas applicants are welcome to apply, but they will be responsible for the costs of travel between their home country and North America. The grants only cover travel within North America.

Library collections focus on Federal policies, U.S. foreign relations, and national politics in the 1960s and 1970s. There are earlier and later materials depending upon your topic

<http://www.fordlibrarymuseum.gov/library/foundationgrants.asp>

---

15. Graduate Assistance: Science, Computer and Information Sciences, Engineering, Math, and Nursing

Deadline: March 16, 2009

Award amount: $128,628-$214,380

This program provides fellowships, through academic departments and programs of Institutes of Higher Education (IHEs), to assist graduate students with excellent records who demonstrate financial need and plan to pursue the highest degree available in their course study at the institution in a field designated as an area of national need. A project must provide fellowships in one or more of the following areas of national need: biology; chemistry; computer and information sciences; engineering; mathematics; nursing; and physics.

<http://www.ed.gov/programs/gaann/applicant.html>

---

16. Hagley Museum and Library Fellowships: History of American Enterprise

Deadline: March 31, 2009, June 31, 2009, October 31, 2009

Award Amount: Stipends are for a minimum of two months and a maximum of six months at no more than $1,600 per month.

Hagley's collections document the interaction between business and the cultural, social, and political dimensions of our society from the late 18th century to the present. Fellowships honor the memory of Henry Belin du Pont, a founding trustee and long-time supporter of Hagley. The Henry Belin du Pont Memorial Fund supports access to and use of Hagley's research collections in the Hagley Museum and Library. They enable scholars to pursue advanced research and study in the library, archival, and artifact collections of the Hagley Museum and Library. Applicants must be from out of state and preference will be given to those whose travel costs to Hagley will be higher. Fellows are expected to participate in seminars which meet periodically, as well as attend noontime colloquia, lectures, and other public programs offered during their tenure. Low-cost accommodations may be available on the museum grounds.

<http://www.hagley.org/library/center/hbdupontfellow.html>

---

17. Course Development in the History of Public and Private Support of the Arts

Deadline: April 1, 2009

Award Amount: $15,000

Through an annual series of Course Development Grants, The Society for the Preservation of American Modernists (SPAM) supports the course development by educators at the college level in the history of public and private support for the arts in the United States.

Course Development Grants are intended to expand college and university teaching of the history of support for the arts in the U.S. Applicants, who may come from disciplines other than art history, must demonstrate that the proposed course is entirely new or substantially revised from old course offerings at their school.

http://www.americanmodernists.org/grant\_apply.html

---

18. Congressional Fellows Program

Deadline: April 16, 2009

Stipend Amount: $40,000 with Benefits

During the yearlong fellowship, Congressional Black Caucus Foundation Fellows (CBCF) work in a congressional office, attend leadership development seminars, complete a community service project and produce a policy research paper. The qualifications are:

- U.S. citizen or permit to work in the U.S.
- Graduate or professional degree completed prior to the start date of the fellowship program. In some instances, extensive and relevant work experience may be substituted for educational requirements.
- Familiarity with the federal legislative process, Congress and the Congressional Black Caucus (CBC) and its members.
- Demonstrated interest in public policy, and commitment to creating and implementing policy to improve the living conditions for underserved and underrepresented individuals.

Selection as a CBCF Fellow is based on a combination of the following criteria:

- A record of academic and professional achievement.
- Evidence of leadership skills and the potential for further growth.
- Demonstrated interest in public policy.
- Quality of paper application and interview performance.

All of these qualities combined with strong writing skills, adaptability, and demeanor are taken into consideration when selecting a class of CBCF Fellows. Some other considerations are whether the program seems to be a good match for applicant's stated professional goals and objectives and evidence of commitment to studying the impact of policy on African Americans and minorities.

http://www.cbcbfinc.org/index.php?option=com\_content&view=article&id=172:congressional-fellows-program&catid=52:leadership-education&Itemid=163

---

19. AmeriCorps State Competitive Grants

Deadline: April 17, 2009

Award amount: $12,600

AmeriCorps is a national service program that provides opportunities for citizens to serve their country and community in local communities. Each year participants of AmeriCorps, called Members join a local program and provide specific intensive, community services such as tutoring students, teaching community residents about issues directly affecting them, and other activities that strengthen communities. The grant award spans a period of three years but is renewable annually subject to performance reviews, availability of federal funds, and progress towards sustainability.

<http://www.volunteerflorida.org/grantinfo.html>

---

20. World of Children Annual Awards Program

Deadline: April 17, 2009

Award Amount: $50,000

The World of Children Awards program was created to recognize and elevate those selfless individuals who make a difference in the lives of children across the globe, regardless of political, religious or geographical boundaries.

The World of Children honors these leaders, and grants them funds to support the proven, high-impact programs they have created. These awards assure that more children's lives will be touched, and changed, forever. World of Children recognizes and elevates selfless individuals who make a difference in the lives of children across the globe.

The 2009 Awards are:

- 2009 Humanitarian Award
- 2009 Health Award
- 2009 Founder's Youth Award

<http://www.worldofchildren.org/Awards.htm>

---

21. Institute of American History Research and Dissertation Fellowships

Deadline: May 1, 2009, December 1, 2009

Award amount: $1,500-$4,000

These Fellowships support work in one of five archives: The Gilder Lehrman Collection, on deposit at the New-York Historical Society; The Library of the New-York Historical Society; The Columbia University Rare Book and Manuscript Library; The New York Public Library Humanities and Social Sciences Library; and The Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture (NYPL). Postdoctoral scholars at every faculty rank, as well as journalists and independent scholars are eligible for Research Fellowships; doctoral candidates who have completed exams and begun dissertation reading and writing are eligible for Dissertation Fellowships.

<http://www.gilderlehrman.org/index.php>

---

22. Individual Research in Anthropology

Deadline: May 1, 2009

Award amount: $20,000

Post-PhD. Research Grants are awarded to individuals holding a Ph.D. or equivalent degree to support individual research projects. The program contributes to the Foundation's overall mission to support basic research in anthropology and to ensure that the discipline continues to be a source of vibrant and significant work that furthers our understanding of humanity's cultural and biological origins, development, and variation. The Foundation supports research that demonstrates a clear link to anthropological theory and debates, and promises to make a solid contribution to advancing these ideas. There is no preference for any methodology, research location, or subfield. The Foundation particularly welcomes proposals that employ a comparative perspective, can generate innovative approaches or ideas, and/or integrate two or more subfields. Applicants must submit their applications using the Foundation's online application submission procedure as well as send printed copies to the Foundation by regular mail.

<http://www.wennergren.org/programs/>

---

23. Post Doctorate Fellowships in Anthropology

Deadline: May 1, 2009, November 1, 2009

Award amount: $40,000

Postdoctoral Fellowships support the writing-up of already completed research. The fellowship is awarded to scholars in the earlier stages of their careers, when they frequently lack the time and resources to develop their research for publication. Scholars with a Ph.D. in hand for no more than ten years (from the application deadline) are eligible to apply. A maximum of eight Hunt Postdoctoral Fellowships are awarded annually.

By providing funds for scholars to devote themselves full-time to writing, the Foundation aims to enable a new generation of scholars to publish significant works that will impact the development of anthropology. The program contributes to the Foundation's overall mission to support basic research in anthropology and to ensure that the discipline continues to be a source of vibrant and significant work that furthers our understanding of humanity's cultural and biological origins, development, and variation. The Foundation supports research that demonstrates a clear link to anthropological theory and debates, and promises to make a solid contribution to advancing these ideas. There is no preference for any methodology, research location, or subfield. The Foundation particularly welcomes proposals that employ a comparative perspective, can generate innovative approaches or ideas, and/or integrate two or more subfields.

<http://www.kauffman.org/entrepreneurship/entrepreneur-postdoctoral-fellows-program.aspx?gclid=CLWS84yIwZkCFYJM5QodFhg1vA>

---

24. Fellowship for Advanced Social Research on Japan

Deadline: May 5, 2009

Award Amount: $50,400 for a twelve month award period

The Fellowship Program for Advanced Social Science Research on Japan is a joint activity of the Japan-U.S. Friendship Commission (JUSFC) and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Awards support research on modern Japanese society and political economy, Japan's international relations, and U.S.-Japan relations. The program encourages innovative research that puts these subjects in wider regional and global contexts and is comparative and contemporary in nature. Research should contribute to scholarly knowledge or to the general public's understanding of issues of concern to Japan and the United States. Disciplines include: anthropology, economics, geography, history, international relations, linguistics, political science, psychology, public administration, and sociology.

<http://www.neh.gov/grants/guidelines/fellowships-japan.html>

---

25. Fellowship for Advanced Social Research on Italian Cultural Heritage

Deadline: May 5, 2009

Award Amount: $50,400 for a twelve month award

Fellowships support individuals pursuing advanced research that is of value to scholars and general audiences in the humanities.

Recipients usually produce articles, monographs, books, digital materials, archaeological site reports, translations, editions, and other scholarly tools.

Fellowships support continuous full-time work for a period of six to twelve months.

Fellowships may not be used for:

- curricular or pedagogical methods, theories, or surveys;
- preparation or revision of textbooks;
- projects that seek to promote a particular political, philosophical, religious, or ideological point of view;
- projects that advocate a particular program of social action;
- works in the creative and performing arts, i.e., painting, writing fiction or poetry, dance performance, etc.; or
- Doctoral dissertations or theses.

<http://www.neh.gov/grants/guidelines/fellowships.html>

---

26. Humanities Fellowships for Researchers, Teachers, and Writers

Deadline: May 5, 2009

Award Amount: $4,200 per month, $50,400 for a twelve-month tenure award period

The National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowships program accepts applications from researchers, teachers, and writers, whether they have an institutional affiliation or not.

All applicants must have completed their formal education by the application deadline. While applicants need not have advanced degrees, individuals currently enrolled in a degree-granting program are ineligible to apply. Applicants who have satisfied all the requirements for a degree and are awaiting its conferral may apply, but such applicants need a letter from the dean of the conferring school or their department chair attesting to the applicant's status as of May 5, 2009.

<https://securegrants.neh.gov/fellowships.asp>

---

27. International Collaborative Research Grant in Anthropology

Deadline: June 1, 2009, December 1, 2009

Award Amount: $30,000

Proposals must involve collaboration between two or more researchers of different nationalities who are working in different countries. Each researcher must hold a doctorate or equivalent qualification in anthropology or a related discipline. Scholars are eligible without regard to institutional or departmental affiliation. Priority is given to those projects involving at least one principal investigator who is a citizen of, and is working and residing in a country where anthropology is underrepresented and where there are limited resources to develop the discipline [click here for country list]. Other international collaborations will, however, be given serious consideration where they are consistent with at least two of the following aims of the Foundation to:

1. Bring together researchers with different national perspectives that complement each other and enrich the research.
2. Strengthen anthropology in countries where there are limited resources to support its development.
3. Combine different areas of expertise and knowledge that will benefit both researchers.

<http://www.wennergren.org/programs/>

---

28. U.S.-French: Teachers in Training

Deadline: June 4, 2009

Award Amount: $375,000

This program is expected to assist French and American educators as they prepare students to live in an increasingly interdependent world.

French participants will be in their first year of practical teaching and will be expected to pass their final practical examination in France in early June 2010. It is anticipated that many of the participants will teach in schools that serve economically disadvantaged and/or diverse socioeconomic sectors. U.S. participants will be undergraduate or graduate students in education, recent graduates with education degrees, or first-year teachers. All U.S. participants must be new teachers or in an advanced stage of preparations to become teachers. The cooperating institution will recruit and select U.S. participants in a nationwide search in coordination with the Fulbright.

<http://exchanges.state.gov/media/pdfs/rfgps/rfgp06042009a.pdf>

---

29. Graduate Student Conference in Media Theory and Visual Arts Call for Papers

Deadline: Abstract due: June 15, 2009, Paper/Presentation if invited deadline: September 15, 2009

Award Amount: none

The Humanities, Arts, Science and Technology Advanced Collaboratory (HASTAC) announces the MediaModes' call for proposals which is open to all current graduate students and those who have received a graduate degree within the last year. MediaModes is sponsored by the MFA Art Criticism & Writing and MFA Computer Art Departments at the School of Visual Arts, NYC. This is an interdisciplinary graduate student conference, which provides a critical forum to present current scholarship and academic research projects at the intersection of media, art, and society. Interdisciplinary by design, MediaModes is particularly interested in engaging papers that address the following issues: Media Art and Social Theory, Mediated Image Making, Popular Culture and Art Practices, Identity and Representation within the Mediated Environment, Philosophy and Media Art, Visual Culture and more. All themes pertaining to the juncture of media, theory and the visual arts will be considered.

<http://www.hastac.org/node/2135>

---

30. Presenting Documentary Photography to the Public

Deadline: June 19, 2009

Award Amount: $5,000-$30,000

The Open Society Institute Documentary Photography Project is offering a grant opportunity to documentary photographers who have already completed a significant body of work on issues of social justice, to collaborate with a partner organization and propose new ways of using photography as a tool for positive social change. All photographers must have another entity (such as a nonprofit, NGO, or community-based organization) that will work with the photographer to design an innovative distribution strategy that targets specific communities and advocates for social change.

http://www.soros.org/initiatives/photography/news/distribution2009\_20081125

---

31. Dissertations Dealing with Issues Related to Library and Information Science

Deadline: June 30, 2009

Award Amount: $500, plus 2010 conference registration and personal membership in Association for Library and Information Science Education (ALISE) for 2010

The Association for Library and Information Science Education (ALISE) is now accepting proposals for its 2010 Doctoral Dissertation Award Competition. Up to two outstanding dissertations completed between December 15, 2007 and June 30, 2009 will be selected. Winners of the Dissertation Competition will present a summary of their work at the 2011 ALISE annual meeting. Doctoral students who have recently graduated in any field of study, or who will have completed their dissertations by the above deadline, are invited to submit two complete copies of their dissertation. Dissertations must deal with substantive issues related to library and information science, but applicants may be from within or outside LIS programs.

<http://www.alise.org/mc/page.do?sitePageId=55538>

---

32. Excellence in Urban Journalism Award

Deadline: June 30, 2009

Award Amount: $2,500

The Award is intended to encourage and recognize quality reporting on major issues facing the nation's urban areas, particularly inner cities. Each entry must involve a news report regarding an urban issue in the United States. Topics may include, but not limited to, affordable housing, community development, homelessness, child care and after effects of disasters, which have left people homeless and communities destroyed. The entry should examine how a city or community has been affected by a situation. Ideally, the entry should include reporting on an outcome or resolution of the situation or show responses through editorials, letters to the editor, etc. The entry may be a single article or broadcast, or a series. The entry must have been published or broadcast during the 2008 calendar year.

http://www.enterprisecommunity.org/programs/awards\_and\_fellowships/awards/excellence\_in\_urban\_journalism\_award/

---

33. Sponsoring Contemporary French Cinema

Deadline(s): June 30, 2009, October 1, 2009

Award Amount: $1,800-$2,300

The French American Cultural Exchange's (FACE), The Tournées Festival was conceived to encourage schools to begin their own self-sustaining French film festivals. To be eligible for a grant, you must be affiliated with an American university or college with non-profit status. Qualifying candidates must plan to show the films for which they are seeking the support of The Tournées Festival as part of a festival, and screenings of all films must take place within a one-month period. The festival should consist of a minimum of five films, as this is a requirement of the program. The films may be presented as part of a larger festival of French or international films. The Tournées Festival grant is provided for a maximum of five consecutive years. Applicants choose five films from among the Featured Films and Alternative Choice titles and prepare a tentative schedule for the screenings. Please view the list of previous participants, click here.

<http://www.facecouncil.org/tournees/index.html>

---

34. Archival and Library Research in American Music

Deadline: July 1, 2009 and October 1, 2009

Award amount: $2,100

Grants are awarded to support research in archives or libraries internationally on any aspect of American music. There are no restrictions as to an applicant's age, nationality, profession, or institutional affiliation. All proposals are reviewed entirely on the basis of merit. An applicant who has not received an Epstein award for the first year of application may resubmit a proposal in the two following years for any one project. An applicant may receive only one award for any one project.

<http://www.musiclibraryassoc.org/awardsandgrants/epstein.shtml>

---

35. Improving the Experiences of College Students in Transition

Deadline: July 1, 2009

Award Amount: $5,000 Stipend, travel expenses to two national conferences, a presentation at a national conference, and priority consideration for publication

The Paul P. Fidler Research Grant competition is open to faculty, staff, graduate students who plan to conduct research on issues of college student transitions. Cross-institutional research teams are encouraged to apply for the Paul P. Fidler Research Grant. Proposals will be evaluated on the extent to which they:

- Focus on issue(s) related to college student transitions. Though all issues related to college student transitions will be considered, special consideration will be given to proposals addressing transitions outside of the first year of college.
- Clearly articulate a strong research design. Qualitative, quantitative, and mixed-method studies will be considered. Methodology must be appropriate for the research question(s).
- Include research that can be completed by November 2010. Results must be ready for presentation at the 2010 National Conference on Students in Transition.
- Explore unique issues, subjects, analysis, participants and/or sample. Research must be original work of the investigators and may not have been reported elsewhere.

- Have potential to have a national impact on student success initiatives. Results of the research should be relevant to a broad audience.

<http://www.sc.edu/fye/research/grant/index.html>

---

36. Education Entrepreneur Fellowship

Deadline: Letter of Intent: July 1, 2009

Award Amount: $250,000

The Mind Trust's Education Entrepreneur Fellowship is a nationally unique incubator for transformative education ventures that provide new solutions to public education's most vexing problems. The Fellowship offers promising education entrepreneurs the opportunity to develop and launch their break-the-mold education ventures and the support necessary for success.

<http://www.themindtrust.org/fellowship/aboutFellowship.aspx>

---

37. Fund for Independent Musicology Scholars

Deadline: July 25, 2009 and January 25, 2010

Award Amount: $500-$2,000

The purpose of the American Musicology Society's Janet Levy Fund is to support professional travel and research expenses for independent scholars who are members of the American Musicological Society. The award is open to members of the American Musicological Society who hold the Ph.D. or similar degree (e.g., D.M.A. in Historical Performance), who are not employed as a full-time faculty member in an institution of higher learning, and who are not emeritus faculty. No individual may receive a Levy Award more than once in a three-year period. Kinds of Projects: Examples of projects supported by the Levy Fund include travel to the Annual Meeting of the AMS, to a conference to read a paper or participate in an official capacity, or to archives or research libraries; research expenses; microfilms; and specialized research materials.

<http://www.ams-net.org/awards/levy.php>

---

38. Researching Violence, Aggression, and Dominance

Deadline: August 1, 2009

Award Amount: $15,000-$30,000

The Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundation welcomes proposals from any of the natural and social sciences and the humanities that promise to increase understanding of the causes, manifestations, and control of violence, aggression, and dominance. Highest priority is given to research that can increase understanding and amelioration of urgent problems of violence, aggression, and dominance in the modern world.

Grants have been made to study aspects of violence related to youth, family relationships, media effects, crime, biological factors, intergroup conflict related to religion, ethnicity, and nationalism, and political violence deployed in war and sub-state terrorism, as well as processes of peace and the control of aggression. To search past grant awards please click here.

<http://www.hfg.org/rg/guidelines.htm>

---

39. International Junior Faculty Development Program

Deadline: August 7, 2009 Eurasia; August 17, 2009 South East Europe

Award Amount: Round-trip international and domestic transportation to and from your home city and your host university, accident/illness insurance, a monthly stipend to cover living expenses, and a professional development fund. In addition to the monetary support you receive, you will also be provided with a host coordinator to help with adjustments to campus life and an American Councils coordinator to assist you with program-related issues.

The Junior Faculty Development Program provides university instructors with a semester long opportunity to expand their knowledge and expertise in their academic field by attending classes and working with faculty members at universities in the United States. Individuals may apply for fields in the humanities and social sciences. The competition is open to citizens from Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Kosovo, Kyrgyzstan, Macedonia, Montenegro, Serbia, Tajikistan, and Turkmenistan. To qualify for a JFDP Fellowship, an applicant must: hold a university degree; be currently teaching at an institution of higher education; have at least two years of teaching experience at an institution of higher education; and, have a mastery of the English language. The primary and distinct goal of the JFDP is to provide university instructors with opportunities to engage in curriculum development and explore alternative teaching methodologies, expand their knowledge in their fields of study and gather new teaching materials and resources. Each JFDP Fellow will spend a total of five(5) months (January-May 2010) in the United States.

<http://www.jfdp.org/fellows.php>

---

40. Distinction in Scholarship and Conservation Award

Deadline: August 15, 2009

Award Amount:

Heritage Preservation and the College Art Association invite nominations for the 2010 Award for Distinction in Scholarship and Conservation. This award was initiated in 1990 for an outstanding contributions by one or more persons who, individual or jointly, have enhanced understanding of art through the application of knowledge and experience in conservation, art history, and art. Please click here to view past recipients.

<http://www.heritagepreservation.org/CAP/index.html>

---

41. Cultural Anthropology Doctoral Dissertation

Deadline: August 15, 2009

Award Amount: $20,000

The National Science Foundation's Cultural Anthropology Program supports basic scientific research about the causes, consequences, and complexities of human social and cultural variability. Cultural anthropologists analyze human social and cultural behavior holistically, this integrated approach makes anthropology a valuable research tool for understanding the modern world. The Cultural Anthropology Program accepts proposals for a variety of project types: Senior Research proposals (that is, research proposals from scholars with PhDs or equivalent degree); proposals for Doctoral Dissertation Research Improvement Grants; Cultural Anthropology Scholars awards (for research-related, post-PhD training); and CAREER proposals. The Program will also consider proposals for workshops and training programs, as well as supplements to current awards to support Research Experience for Undergraduates (REU) and Research Experience for Graduate Studies (REG). Research in all sub-fields of cultural anthropology is eligible. Successful proposals are characterized by clear research questions and propositions that will be put to the test through meticulous attention to research design, data collection, and analysis. Anthropological research spans a wide gamut, and contemporary cultural anthropology is an arena in which diverse research traditions and methodologies are valid. Recognizing the breadth of the field's contributions to science, the Cultural Anthropology Program welcomes proposals for empirically grounded, theoretically engaged, and methodologically sophisticated research in all sub-fields of cultural anthropology. Click here for previously funded projects.

http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm\_summ.jsp?pi\_ms\_id=5388&org=BCS

---

42. Fellowship Programs at Independent Research Institutions

Deadline: August 18, 2009

Award Amount: $81,600 to $468,000

The National Endowment for the Humanities' Grants Fellowship Programs at Independent Research Institutions (FPIRI) support fellowships at institutions devoted to advanced study and research in the humanities. NEH fellowships provide scholars with research time and access to resources that might not be available at their home institutions. Fellowship programs may be administered by independent centers for advanced study, libraries, and museums in the United States; American overseas research centers; or organizations that have expertise in promoting research on foreign cultures. Individual scholars must apply directly to the institutions themselves. In evaluating applications from programs at institutions located in the United States, priority is given to those with library holdings, archives, or other special collections—either on-site or nearby—that are available as resources for NEH fellows.

<http://www.neh.gov/grants/guidelines/fpiri.html>

---

43. Developing Humanities Media Projects

Deadline: August 26, 2009

Award Amount: $40,000-$75,000

The National Endowment for the Humanities' Grants for America's Media Makers support projects in the humanities that explore stories, ideas, and beliefs that deepen our understanding of our lives and our world. Development grants enable media producers to collaborate with scholars to develop humanities content and format and to prepare programs for production. These grants cover a wide range of activities that include, but are not limited to, meetings and individual consultations with scholars, research, preliminary interviews, preparation of program scripts, designs for interactivity and digital distribution, and the creation of partnerships for outreach activities and public engagement with the humanities. Development grants should culminate in the refinement of a project's humanities ideas, a script, or a design document for (or a prototype of) digital media components or projects. Before applying, applicants must have a solid command of the major humanities scholarship on their subject, have clarified the ideas that the project will consider, and have consulted with a team of scholarly advisers to work out the intellectual issues that the program will explore. Applicants must also have made preliminary decisions about the format and storyline and located essential materials for the program(s). Finally, they must have recruited the appropriate media professionals, especially the producer, writer, or interactive designer. Any U.S. nonprofit organization with IRS 501(c)(3) tax exempt status is eligible, as are state and local governmental agencies.

http://www.neh.gov/grants/guidelines/AmMediaMakers\_development.html

---

44. Producing Humanities Media Projects

Deadline: August 26, 2009

Award Amount: $100,000 to $800,000

The National Endowment for the Humanities' Grants for America's Media Makers support projects in the humanities that explore stories, ideas, and beliefs that deepen our understanding of our lives and our world. Production grants support the preparation of a program for distribution. Applicants must submit a script for a radio or television program, or a prototype or storyboard for a digital media project, that demonstrates a solid command of the humanities ideas and scholarship related to a subject. The script for a radio or television program, or prototype or storyboard for a digital media project, must also show how the narrative elements, visual approach, and interactive design combine to present the project's humanities ideas. Applicants must have consulted with appropriate scholars about the project and obtained their commitment as advisers. Finally, applicants must have recruited the media team, including at a minimum the producer, director, writer, and, for a digital media project, the interactive designer. Applications may be submitted for any phase of a project. Applicants are not required to obtain a development grant before applying for a production grant. Applicants may not, however, submit multiple applications for the same project at the same deadline. An applicant must choose whether to apply for development or production of a particular project. If an application for a project is already under review, another application for the same project cannot be accepted. Any U. S. nonprofit organization with IRS 501(c)(3) tax exempt status is eligible, as are state and local governmental agencies.

[http://www.nih.gov/grants/guidelines/AmMedi aMakers\_product ion.html](http://www.nih.gov/grants/guidelines/AmMedi aMakers_product ion.html)

---

45. Research Training in Life Sciences Fellowship

Deadline: Registration: August 27, 2009 ; Application: September 10, 2009

Award Amount: $60,000

The Human Frontier Science Program (HFSP) offers fellowships for basic research training in the life sciences across national and scientific boundaries. The HFSP invites applications for two international programs that support postdoctoral investigators who explore new research areas. The participation of scientists from outside the life sciences is particularly encouraged because the frontiers of science are often found at the interface of biological and physical sciences.

1. Long-Term Fellowships (LTF) are reserved for applicants with a Ph.D. in a biological discipline to embark on a new project in a different field of the life sciences. 2. Cross-Disciplinary Fellowships (CDF) are open to applicants with a Ph.D. from outside the life sciences e.g. in physics, chemistry, mathematics, engineering or computer sciences who have had limited exposure to biology during their previous training.

*Because of the wealth of information in regards to eligibility, please continue reading here:

[http://www.hfsp.org/how/PDFs/Fel lowshi p\_App\_Gui del i nes\_2010.pdf](http://www.hfsp.org/how/PDFs/Fel lowshi p_App_Gui del i nes_2010.pdf).

---

46. Human Rights Internships

Deadline: Brief Concept Letter due: Monday, August 31, 2009 ; Final application due: October 1, 2009.

Award Amount: Open Society Institute (OSI) will provide funds to cover the entire period of the internship, including a stipend and the costs of visa and travel.

The Human Rights and Governance Grants Program (HRGGP) and the Scholarship Programs of the Open Society Institute announce the Human Rights Internship. The internship is intended to attract recent graduates of master's and LL.M. programs in the social sciences, law, and humanities to the human rights sector, giving them the opportunity to gain first-hand research experience in the field of human rights, government accountability, or penal reform. Successful candidates receive a locally determined stipend and the opportunity to work in one of the leading human rights and accountability advocacy organizations in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union. The program is designed to benefit both the intern and the host organization. Internships last from 6, 15 to 12 months, depending on the research topic and scope. For the upcoming year, the Open Society Institute will support up to 10 internships. Eligible candidates must fulfill the following three requirements:

1. Be the recipient of an OSI fellowship from the Scholarship Programs, or a graduate of the Central European University's Human Rights Program or Comparative Constitutional Law Program.

2. Have graduated in the past three years from LL.M. or MA studies in the social sciences, law, or humanities.
3. Be a citizen of a country from Central and Eastern Europe, the former Soviet Union, or Mongolia.

http://www.soros.org/initiatives/hrqgp/focus\_areas/a\_human\_rights/guide

---

47. Early Career Researchers for Youth and Policies' Development

Deadline: Letters of Inquiry: September 1, 2009, Full Application due: Early April 2010

Award amount: $100,000-$600,000

Scholars Program supports promising early career researchers from diverse disciplines. The award is intended to facilitate the professional development of early career scholars who have some demonstrated success in conducting high quality research and are seeking to further develop their skills and research program. Studies from these Scholars contribute to theory and policy/practice for improving the everyday settings of youth.

Current Foundation Research interests are to understand and improve the settings of youth 8-25 in the United States. Settings are defined as the proximal environments in which youth experience daily life. Important settings include but are not limited to schools, youth serving organizations, neighborhoods, families, and peer groups. Studies that enhance understanding of how these settings work, effect our youth development and how they can be improved will be funded.

The second area of interest that will be funded involves understanding when, how and under what conditions influences youth policy and practice.

<http://www.wtgrantfoundation.org/>

---

48. "New Generation" Japan specialists Program

Deadline: October 1, 2009

Award Amount: The program will cover the costs of travel, accommodations, and meals associated with project meetings and study trips. Program participants may be eligible to compete for cash awards contingent upon publication of their pieces.

The Maureen and Mike Mansfield Foundation and the Japan Foundation Center for Global Partnership have initiated the U.S.-Japan Network for the Future program, a new program intended to foster a network of "next generation" Japan specialists. Applicants must be American citizens or permanent residents and should be committed to the Japan-U.S. dialogue and have a working knowledge of the Japanese language. Applicants should have a graduate degree and at least two years experience in their field. In keeping with the aim of this program to identify the "next generation" of scholars and practitioners, applicants should, in principle, be between 27 and 45 years of age. Selected specialists will be announced November 1, 2009, and from January 2010 through January 2012 will participate in a series of meetings and workshops and a study trip to Japan.

<http://www.mansfieldfdn.org/programs/networkforthefuture.htm>

---

49. Fellowship at the Schlesinger Library: History of Women in America

Deadline: October 1, 2009 for individual applications in the creative arts, humanities, and social sciences. November 15, 2009 for applications in the natural sciences and mathematics.

Award Amount: $3,000

The Schlesinger Library is a noncirculating research library that documents the history of American women in the United States and abroad in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. It is open to the public and part of the Harvard University Library system.

Applicants must have a doctoral degree or equivalent research and writing experience. Priority will be given to those who have demonstrated research productivity and whose projects require use of materials available only at the Schlesinger Library. Non-US citizens are eligible but should contact the library regarding visas and other required paperwork prior to applying.

Applications will be evaluated on the significance of the research and the project's potential contribution to the advancement of knowledge as well as its creativity in drawing on the library's holdings.

<http://www.radcliffe.edu/fellowships/apply.aspx>

---

50. Postdoctoral Population Health Program

Deadline: October 2, 2009

Award Amount: Annual stipend of $89,000 in year one and $92,000 in year two of the program.

The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Health and Society Scholar program provides two years of support to postdoctoral scholars at all stages of their careers to build the nation's capacity for research and leadership to address the multiple determinants of population health and contribute to policy change. The program is based on the principle that progress in the field of population health depends upon multidisciplinary collaboration and exchange. Its goal is to improve health by training scholars to:

- investigate the connections among biological, genetic, behavioral, environmental, economic and social determinants of health; and
- develop, evaluate and disseminate knowledge and interventions that integrate and act on these determinants to improve health.

The program is intended to produce leaders who will change the questions asked, the methods employed to analyze problems and the range of solutions to reduce population health disparities and improve the health of all Americans. Individuals who have completed their doctoral training by the time of entry into the program (August or September 2010) in one of a variety of fields including, but not limited to, behavioral and social sciences, biological and natural sciences, health professions, public policy, public health, history, demography, environmental sciences, urban planning, engineering and ethics, are eligible. Applicants are expected to have significant research experience. Past training in health-related areas is not a requirement, but applicants must clearly connect their research interests to substantive population health concerns. Applicants should welcome the challenge of building the field of population health. RWJF is committed to a program that embraces racial, ethnic, gender and disciplinary diversity, and we encourage applications from candidates with diverse backgrounds. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of the United States or its territories at the time of application to the program.

<http://www.rwjf.org/applications/solicited/cfp.jsp?ID=20741>

-----

51. Postdoctoral Population Health Program

Deadline: October 2, 2009

Award Amount: Annual stipend of $89,000 in year one and $92,000 in year two of the program.

The Robert Wood's Foundation's Health and Society Scholar program provides two years of support to postdoctoral scholars at all stages of their careers to build the nation's capacity for research and leadership to address the multiple determinants of population health and contribute to policy change. The program is based on the principle that progress in the field of population health depends upon multidisciplinary collaboration and exchange. Its goal is to improve health by training scholars to:

- investigate the connections among biological, genetic, behavioral, environmental, economic and social determinants of health; and
- develop, evaluate and disseminate knowledge and interventions that integrate and act on these determinants to improve health.

The program is intended to produce leaders who will change the questions asked, the methods employed to analyze problems and the range of solutions to reduce population health disparities and improve the health of all Americans. Individuals who have completed their doctoral training by the time of entry into the program (August or September 2010) in one of a variety of fields including, but not limited to, behavioral and social sciences, biological and natural sciences, health professions, public policy, public health, history, demography, environmental sciences, urban planning, engineering and ethics, are eligible. Applicants are expected to have significant research experience. Past training in health-related areas is not a requirement, but applicants must clearly connect their research interests to substantive population health concerns. Applicants should welcome the challenge of building the field of population health. RWJF is committed to a program that embraces racial, ethnic, gender and disciplinary diversity, and we encourage applications from candidates with diverse backgrounds. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of the United States or its territories at the time of application to the program.

<http://www.rwjf.org/applications/solicited/cfp.jsp?ID=20741>

---

52. Scholarly Research in the Life Sciences

Deadline: September 1, 2009

Award Amount: $30,000 to $75,000

The Whitehall Foundation research grants are available to established scientists of all ages working at accredited institutions in the United States. Applications will be judged on the scientific merit and the innovative aspects of the proposal as well as on the competence of the applicant. The Foundation is currently interested in basic research in neurobiology, defined as follows: Invertebrate and vertebrate (excluding clinical) neurobiology, specifically investigations of neural mechanisms involved in sensory, motor, and other complex functions of the whole organism as these relate to behavior. The overall goal should be to better understand behavioral output or brain mechanisms of behavior. Please click here to view 2008 awards.

<http://www.whitehall.org/grants/>

---

53. Scholarly Research in the Life Science for Assistant Professors

Deadline: September 1, 2009

Award Amount: $30,000

The Whitehall Foundation's Grants-in-Aid program is designed for researchers at the assistant professor level who experience difficulty in competing for research funds because they have not yet become firmly established. Grants-in-Aid can also be made to senior scientists. All applications will be judged on the scientific merit and innovative aspects of the proposal, as well as on past performance and evidence of the applicant's continued productivity.

<http://www.whitehall.org/grants/>

---

54. International Research Fellowship Program

Deadline: September 8, 2009

Award Amount: $57,000 to $200,000

The National Science Foundation's International Research Fellowship Program (IRFP) supports highly meritorious research and education activities that present unique opportunities and offer potentially high benefits because of the vital and integral nature of the foreign collaboration. Fellowship support is intended to both advance the research and develop a cadre of scientists and engineers who will play a leadership role in forging international collaborations of great value to the nation. Institutions of higher education may apply. Eligible applicants, in addition to being citizens or permanent residents of the United States, must have earned a doctoral degree within two years of the deadline date, or expect to receive the doctoral degree by the start of the project. Women, minorities, and persons with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply.

<http://www.nsf.gov/pubs/2006/nsf06582/nsf06582.html#pgmintr.txt>

---

55. Gerald R. Ford Library Foundation Research Travel Grants

Deadline: September 15, 2009

Award amount: $2,000

The Gerald R. Ford Foundation awards grants of up to $2,000 each in support of research in the holdings of the Gerald R. Ford Library. A grant defrays travel, living, and photocopy expenses of a research trip to the Ford Library. Overseas applicants are welcome to apply, but they will be responsible for the costs of travel between their home country and North America. The grants only cover travel within North America.

Library collections focus on Federal policies, U.S. foreign relations, and national politics in the 1960s and 1970s. There are earlier and later materials depending upon your topic

<http://www.fordlibrarymuseum.gov/library/foundationgrants.asp>

---

56. Entrepreneurship Dissertation Fellowship

Deadline: September 23, 2009

Award Amount: $20,000

The Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation's Entrepreneurship Dissertation Fellowship is awarded to Ph.D., D.B.A., or other doctoral students at accredited U.S. universities to support dissertations in the area of entrepreneurship. The findings generated by this effort will be translated into knowledge with immediate application for policymakers, educators, service providers, and entrepreneurs as well as high-quality academic research. Click here to view past fellows.

<http://www.kauffman.org/research-and-policy/kauffman-dissertation-fellowship-program.aspx>

---

57. International Affairs Research Fellowship Program

Deadline: Nominations due: September 25, 2009, Applications

Distributed: September-October 2009, Applications Due: October 30, 2009

Award Amount: $20,000

The Council on Foreign Relations fellowships are intended for outstanding young American citizens between the ages of 27 and 35. The fellowships seek to bridge the gap between thought and action in foreign policy by supporting both a variety of policy studies and active exposure to policymaking. The distinctive character of the program lies in the contrasting experiences it provides at the juncture of policy research and policy formulation. Thus, it encourages academics and others from the private sector to serve in a policy-oriented environment through operational experience in public service.

<http://www.cfr.org/about/fellowships/iaf.html>

---

58. Biology of Developmental Disabilities in Children Fellowship

Deadline: Preliminary Proposals: September 15, 2009, If Requested: Full proposal due: January 15, 2010

Award Amount: $75,000 per year for four years

The John Merck Fund(JMF) supports proposals with the most promising basic research into the processes that impair the lives of the developmentally disabled, focusing investigations by neurobiologists and by cognitive scientists of the underlying causes of developmental disabilities. Proposals need to show how to foster a better scientific understanding of the origin of these disabilities and thereby provide the foundation for more effective approaches to their prevention and treatment. JMF has in the past funded and will continue to fund the most promising young researchers whose work illuminates neuro developmental disorders. This program seeks proposals from young scientist conducting research that is of the highest quality and that has the greatest chance of increasing our understanding of neuro developmental disorders. Applicants must have the following: 1. Academic rank in a university or medical school, or equivalent standing in a research institute or medical center. If the institution offers tenure, must be on a tenure track. 2. Not more than four years of experience in an independent faculty position at the time of the start of the award. 3. A record of research in areas relating to the Fund's interest in the underlying causes of developmental disabilities. 4. Evidence of a commitment to a career in neuroscience or cognitive science. Applicants may not hold tenured positions or their equivalents, apply in more than two rounds of competition, apply for continued postdoctoral support.

http://www.jmfund.org/jm\_scholars\_program.shtml

---

59. Researching East, Southeast, and/or South Asia in the Library of Congress Fellowship

Deadline: September 30, 2009

Award Amount: $300-$2,500

The Asian Division of the Library of Congress is pleased to announce the annual Florence Tan Moeson Fellowship. The purpose of the fellowship is to provide individuals with the opportunity to pursue research on East, Southeast, and/or South Asia (including the overseas Asian communities), using the unparalleled collections of the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C. The grants are for a minimum of five business days of research and are to be used to cover expenses incurred while engaging in scholastic research at the Library of Congress, in the area of Asian studies (e.g., travel to and from Washington, overnight accommodations, photocopying). Eligibility: Graduate students, independent scholars, community college teachers, researchers without regular teaching appointments, and librarians with a demonstrated need for fellowship support are especially welcome to apply. There is no citizenship requirement. Non-U.S. citizens will be offered advice in obtaining the appropriate visa.

<http://www.lcasianfriends.org/fellowship/details>

---

60. Fellowships for Recently Tenured Scholars in Humanities and Related Social Sciences

Deadline: September 30, 2009

Award Amount: $75,000

The Burkhardt Fellowship Program is open to recently tenured humanists-scholars who will have begun their first tenured contracts by the application deadline but began their first tenured contracts no earlier than the fall 2005 semester or quarter. An applicant must be employed in a tenured position at a degree-granting academic institution in the United States, remaining so for the duration of the fellowship. US citizenship or permanent residency is not required, and previous supported research leaves do not affect eligibility for the Burkhardt Fellowship. Appropriate fields of specialization include but are not limited to: American studies; anthropology; archaeology; art and architectural history; classics; economics; film; geography; history; languages and literatures; legal studies; linguistics; musicology; philosophy; political science; psychology; religious studies; rhetoric, communication, and media studies; science, technology, and medicine studies; sociology; and theater, dance, and performance studies. Proposals in the social science fields listed above are eligible only if they employ predominantly humanistic approaches (e.g., economic history, law and literature, political theory). Proposals in interdisciplinary and cross-disciplinary studies are welcome, as are proposals focused on any geographic region or on any cultural or linguistic group.

<http://www.acls.org/programs/burkhardt/>

---

61. Study of Archaeology and Society in the Biblical or Early Post-Biblical Periods Fellowship

Deadline: October 1, 2009

Award Amount: $5,000

The W. F. Albright Institute of Archaeological Research announces its Carol and Eric Meyers Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship. Eligibility is for doctoral students whose research involves the study of archaeology and society in the biblical or early post-biblical periods. Topics dealing with society at the household level are encouraged.

<http://www.aiar.org/fellowships.html>

---

62. "New Generation" Japan specialists Program

Deadline: October 1, 2009

Award Amount: The program will cover the costs of travel, accommodations, and meals associated with project meetings and study trips. Program participants may be eligible to compete for cash awards contingent upon publication of their pieces.

The Maureen and Mike Mansfield Foundation and the Japan Foundation Center for Global Partnership have initiated the U.S.-Japan Network for the Future program, a new program intended to foster a network of "next generation" Japan specialists. Applicants must be American citizens or permanent residents and should be committed to the Japan-U.S. dialogue and have a working knowledge of the Japanese language. Applicants should have a graduate degree and at least two years experience in their field. In keeping with the aim of this program to identify the "next generation" of scholars and practitioners, applicants should, in principle, be between 27 and 45 years of age. Selected specialists will be announced November 1, 2009, and from January 2010 through January 2012 will participate in a series of meetings and workshops and a study trip to Japan.

<http://www.mansfielddn.org/programs/networkforthefuture.htm>

-----

63. Sponsoring Contemporary French Cinema

Deadline(s): June 30, 2009, October 1, 2009

Award Amount: $1,800-$2,300

The French American Cultural Exchange's (FACE), The Tournées Festival was conceived to encourage schools to begin their own self-sustaining French film festivals. To be eligible for a grant, you must be affiliated with an American university or college with non-profit status. Qualifying candidates must plan to show the films for which they are seeking the support of The Tournées Festival as part of a festival, and screenings of all films must take place within a one-month period. The festival should consist of a minimum of five films, as this is a requirement of the program. The films may be presented as part of a larger festival of French or international films. The Tournées Festival grant is provided for a maximum of five consecutive years. Applicants choose five films from among the Featured Films and Alternative Choice titles and prepare a tentative schedule for the screenings. Please view the list of previous participants, click here.

<http://www.facecouncil.org/tournees/index.html>

-----

64. French Language, Literature, and Culture Fellowship

Deadline: October 1, 2009

Award Amount: $10,000 and a single round-trip, economy-class ticket for the recipient to travel to France; some additional support may be available to those with dependents.

The Phi Beta Kappa Society's Walter J. Jensen Fellowship is awarded for at least six months of study in France. The purpose of the award is to help educators and researchers improve education in standard French language, literature and culture and in the study of standard French in the United States. Candidates must be U.S. citizens under the age of 40 who can demonstrate their career does or will involve active use of the French language. They must have earned a bachelor's degree from an accredited four-year institution with a 3.0 minimum GPA in French language and literature as a major. They must demonstrate superior competence in French, according to the standards established by the American Association of Teachers of French. The recipient must report to Phi Beta Kappa every two months in both English and French. At the end of the fellowship, the Fellow must submit a summary report in English and French, which may be submitted (preferably in French) to a scholarly publication such as The French Review. Preference may be given to members of Phi Beta Kappa and educators at the secondary school level or higher. Click here to view previous winners.

http://www.pbk.org/infoview/PBK\_InfoView.aspx?t=&id=27

---

65. Minority Student Fellowships at the Smithsonian

Deadline: October 1, 2009

Award Amount: $5,000

Through the Minority Student Awards Program the Office of Fellowships offers internships and visiting student awards to increase participation of U.S. minority groups who are underrepresented in Smithsonian scholarly programs, in the disciplines of research conducted at the Institution, and in the museum field. Visiting Student Awards are available for currently enrolled advanced graduate students. Visiting Students pursue independently designed research projects in association with Smithsonian staff. Click here to view the 2009 recipients.

<http://www.si.edu/ofg/Applications/MI P/MI Papp.htm>

---

66. Archival and Library Research in American Music

Deadline: October 1, 2009

Award amount: $2,100

Grants are awarded to support research in archives or libraries internationally on any aspect of American music. There are no restrictions as to an applicant's age, nationality, profession, or institutional affiliation. All proposals are reviewed entirely on the basis of merit. An applicant who has not received an Epstein award for the first year of application may resubmit a proposal in the two following years for any one project. An applicant may receive only one award for any one project.

<http://www.musiclibraryassoc.org/awardsandgrants/epstein.shtml>

---

67. Creative Service Learning Projects

Deadline: October 2, 2009

Award Amount: $25,000-$100,000

State Farm's Youth Advisory Board funds Service Learning Projects that address the root causes of the following issues: Environmental Responsibility, Driver Safety, Financial Education, Access to Higher Education/Closing the Achievement Gap and Natural and Societal Disaster Preparedness. To be eligible to apply, organizations/institutions must be located in the United States or Canada. Primary applicant should be either an educator who currently teaches in a public K-12, public charter, or higher education institution, or a school-based service-learning coordinator whose primary role is to coordinate service-learning projects in a public, charter, or higher education institution. Click here to view projects funded in 2009.

HTTP://WWW.STATEFARMYAB.COM/YAB-SUPPLEMENTALINFO-2009.PDF

---

68. Postdoctoral Scholars Program in the Field of Population Health

Deadline: October 2, 2009

Award Amount: Annual stipend of $89,000 in year one, and $92,000 in year two of the program.

The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Health & Society Scholars program invites individuals who have completed their doctoral training by the time of entry into the program (August or September 2010) in one of a variety of fields including, but not limited to, behavioral and social sciences, biological and natural sciences, health professions, public policy, public health, history, demography, environmental sciences, urban planning, engineering and ethics, are eligible to apply. Applicants are expected to have significant research experience. Each year the program enables up to 18 individuals who have completed their doctoral training and produced outstanding work to engage in an intensive two-year program at one of six nationally prominent universities. Training activities at the participating universities are intentionally flexible to meet the diverse backgrounds, interests and needs of individual scholars. The participating Universities are: Columbia University, Harvard University, Univ. of California- San Francisco and Berkeley, University of Michigan, University of Pennsylvania, and the University of Wisconsin.

<http://www.healthandsocietyscholars.org/1492>

---

69. Education Programs Promoting Equality

Deadline(s): October 2, 2009; and December 4, 2009

Award Amount: $40,000

The Spencer Foundation seeks to shed light on the role education plays in reducing economic and social inequalities -- as well as, sometimes, reinforcing them -- and to find ways to more fully realize education's potential to promote more equal opportunity. Their interests therefore extend to studies that examine the ways in which differences in educational experiences (including quality and character of schooling as well as number of years in school) translate into differences in employment, earnings, and civic and social outcomes. Such work can help identify ways to change schooling investments and outcomes in the interests of a more just and prosperous society. Principal Investigators applying for a Research Grant must be affiliated with a school district, a college or university, a research facility, or a cultural institution. The Foundation accepts proposals from institutions and/or researchers from the U.S. and internationally. Researchers must also have an earned doctorate in an academic discipline or professional field or appropriate experience in an education-related profession.

<http://www.spencer.org/content.cfm/education-and-social-opportunity>

---

70. Research Scholar Award in Psoriasis/Inflammatory Skin Diseases

Deadline: October 5, 2009

Award Amount: $150,000 over two years

The American Skin Association supports basic science and clinical research for psoriasis and inflammatory diseases by gifted young scientists in the early phases of their careers. The aim of the program is to provide bridge support for young investigators. Special consideration will be given to individuals without significant prior support. The individual must have a strong career goal within the field of dermatology and be dedicated to the furtherance of knowledge concerning psoriasis/inflammatory skin diseases. The research must be focused on new discoveries in the basic and clinical sciences, which should have current or potential impact on the understanding and treatment of psoriasis/inflammatory skin diseases. Eligibility: Preference would be given to those under the age of 45 as of June 30, 2010 with a rank of instructor or institutional equivalent up through associate professor. First preference will be given to those working in a department or division of dermatology, and second preference to those who show evidence of a close working relationship with dermatology. If an MD, the candidate must be Board certified in dermatology with at least three years of in-depth experience in investigative dermatology. If a PhD, the candidate must have at least three years of postdoctoral experience in investigative dermatology. The candidate must be identified as a current or future leader in dermatological investigation, and must spend at least 80% of his/her professional time in research.

<http://www.americanskin.org/research/seekers.php>

---

71. Doctoral and Master of Fine Arts Fellowships

Deadline: October 5, 2009

Award Amount: $30,000

The Department of Education awards fellowships in selected fields of study of the arts, humanities and social sciences. This program provides fellowships to students of superior academic ability—selected on the basis of demonstrated achievement, financial need, and exceptional promise—to undertake study at the doctoral and Master of Fine Arts level in selected fields of arts, humanities, and social sciences. Eligibility is limited to individuals who at the time of application-- (1) will be entering a doctoral program in academic year 2010-2011 and/or who, at the time of application, have not yet completed their first full year of study in the doctoral program for which they are seeking support; (2) will be entering a Master of Fine Arts program in academic year 2010-2011 where the master's is the terminal highest degree awarded in the selected field of study. Eligibility is limited to U.S. citizens or nationals, permanent residents of the U.S., or citizens of any one of the Freely Associated States. Applicants must be eligible to be accepted to or currently attending a graduate program leading to a doctorate or a terminal master's degree in an eligible field of study at an institution of higher education approved by an accrediting agency recognized by the Secretary of the Department of Education. Applicants attending a foreign institution are ineligible. Eligibility is limited to individuals who, as Javits fellows, will be eligible to receive any grant, loan, or work assistance pursuant to Section 484 of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended. Students who have already received a Javits fellowship in previous years are not eligible. Click here to view previous fellows.

<http://www.ed.gov/programs/jacobjavits/index.html>

-----

72. International Scholarship to Study Abroad

Deadline: October 6, 2009

Award Amount: $5,000

The U.S. Department of State and Bureau of Educational and Cultural's Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship Program provides scholarships to U.S. undergraduates with financial need for study abroad, including students from diverse backgrounds and students going to non-traditional study abroad destinations. Students studying critical need languages are eligible for up to $3,000 in additional funding as part of the Gilman Critical Need Language Supplement program. Critical Need Languages Include: Arabic Chinese Korean Russian Turkic (Azerbaijani, Kazakh, Kyrgyz, Turkish, Turkmen, Uzbek) Persian (Farsi, Dari, Kurdish, Pashto, Tajiki) Indic (Hindi, Urdu, Nepali, Sinhala, Bengali, Punjabi, Marathi, Gujarati, Sindhi) The Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship Program is open to all U.S. citizen undergraduates, in good academic standing, who meet the criteria listed below:

- The applicant must be receiving a Federal Pell Grant or provide proof that he/she will be receiving a Pell Grant at the time of application or during the term of his/her study abroad.
- The applicant is applying to or has been accepted into a study abroad program eligible for credit by the student's accredited institution of higher education in the U.S.
- The applicant is studying abroad for at least 28 days in one country. Programs going to more than one country are eligible if the student will be studying in one country for at least 28 consecutive days.
- The applicant is studying abroad in any country except Cuba or a country on the State Department's current Travel Warning list.
- The applicant is studying in the fall, spring, or academic year terms including winter inter-sessions. Summer only programs are not eligible.

http://www.iie.org/Content/NavigationMenu/Fulbright\_Demo\_Site/Foreign\_Student\_Program/Application\_Center1/Application\_Center.htm

---

73. Efforts to Reform the U.S. Criminal Justice System Fellowship

Deadline: October 14, 2009

Award Amount: $75,000-$105,000

The Open Society Institute's (OSI) Soros Justice Fellowship program funds outstanding individuals working to implement innovative projects that advance OSI's efforts to reform the U.S. criminal justice system. OSI's strategy takes aim at two overarching ills: the over-reliance on incarceration and harsh punishment, and the lack of equal justice, especially for people of color and the poor. Fellows receive funding through the following two programs: Soros Justice Advocacy Fellowships fund outstanding individuals - including lawyers, advocates, grassroots organizers, activist academics, and others with important perspectives - who initiate innovative policy advocacy projects at the local, state, and national levels that will have a measurable impact on one or more of OSI's U.S. criminal justice priorities. Advocacy fellowships are eighteen months in duration and may be implemented in conjunction with a host organization.

http://www.soros.org/initiatives/usprograms/focus/justice/news/justicefellows\_20090723

---

74. Postdoctoral Research Fellowships in Biology

Deadline: October 14, 2009

Award Amount: $60,000

The National Science Foundation's, Directorate for Biological Sciences (BIO) program awards Postdoctoral Research Fellowships in Biology to recent recipients of the doctoral degree for research and training in selected areas of biology supported by BIO and with special goals for human resource development in biology. The fellowships encourage independence at an early stage of the research career to permit Fellows to pursue their research and training goals in the most appropriate research locations regardless of the availability of funding for the Fellows at that site. Only individuals may apply. NSF postdoctoral fellowships are awards to individuals, and applications are submitted directly by applicants to NSF. However, applications must include sponsoring scientists' statements and the applicants must affiliate with institutions (e.g., colleges and universities, and privately-sponsored nonprofit institutes and museums, government agencies and laboratories, and, under special conditions, for-profit organizations) anywhere in the world. Applicants must:

- be U.S. citizens (or nationals) or permanent residents of the United States (i.e., have a "green card") at the time of application;
- earn or plan to earn the doctoral degree in a scientific or engineering field prior to the requested start date of the fellowship and have not accepted an academic appointment;
- either currently be a graduate student or, at the deadline date, have served in a position requiring the doctoral degree for no more than 12 full time months since earning the degree;

- must present a research and training plan that falls within the purview of BIO and includes the required information for the specific competition as described for this program.
  - select a host institution and sponsoring scientist different from the doctoral degree and current position;
  - not have received Federal funding of more than $20,000 as PI or co-PI (except graduate fellowships and doctoral dissertation improvement grants);
  - not have submitted concurrently the same project to another NSF program (except the International Research Fellowship program); AND
  - not be a named participant on any other proposal submitted to NSF, including regular research proposals, concurrent with the fellowship application, regardless of who is the named principal investigator.
- Click here to view abstracts of recent awards made through this program.

http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm\_summ.jsp?pi\_ms\_id=12720&org=NSF

-----

75. Postdoctoral Fellowship: "Virtuality" in the Humanities

Deadline: October 15, 2009

Award Amount: $46,500, plus health insurance

The Andrew W. Mellon Postdoctoral Fellowship in the Humanities at the Penn Humanities Forum, University of Pennsylvania, is open to scholars who are not yet tenured and who are no more than eight years out of their doctorate. Candidates may hold a tenure-track position but may not be tenured either before or during the fellowship year. For the 2010–2011 Fellowship, candidates must have received or will receive their Ph.D. between December 2001 and December 2009. You must have your degree in hand or have passed your defense no later than December 2009 to be eligible. The Ph.D. is the only terminal degree eligible (i.e., MFAs and other doctorates such as EdD are ineligible). During their year in residence, Penn Humanities Forum Mellon Postdoctoral Fellows will have the opportunity to pursue their own research. That research must relate to Virtuality, the Forum's topic of study for 2010–11. Fellows must also participate in the weekly Mellon Research Seminar of the Penn Humanities Forum (Tuesdays, 12:00–2:00), and present their research at one of those seminars. In addition to conducting their research, Mellon Fellows are required to teach one freshman seminar in an appropriate department. Click here for Penn Freshmen Seminar descriptions.

http://humanities.sas.upenn.edu/mellon\_cfa.shtml

-----

76. Educators Professional Development Program

Deadline: October 15, 2009

Award Amount: $2,000

The National Education Association, Learning & Leadership Grants support public school teachers, public education support professionals, and/or faculty and staff in public institutions of higher education for one of the following two purposes:

- Grants to individuals fund participation in high-quality professional development experiences, such as summer institutes or action research.
- Grants to groups fund collegial study, including study groups, action research, lesson study, or mentoring experiences for faculty or staff new to an assignment. All professional development must improve practice, curriculum, and student achievement.

http://neafoundation.org/programs/Learning&Leadership\_Guidelines.htm

---

77. American History and Culture Through 1876 Dissertation Fellowship

Deadline: October 15, 2009

Award Amount: $35,000

The American Antiquarian Society's Hensch Post-Dissertation Fellowship will be presented to Scholars who are no more than three years beyond receipt of the doctorate. The purpose of the post-dissertation fellowship is to provide the recipient with time and resources to extend research and/or to revise the dissertation for publication. Any topic relevant to the Society's library collections and programmatic scope--that is, American history and culture through 1876--is eligible. Applicants may come from such fields as history, literature, American studies, political science, art history, music history, and others relating to America in the period of the Society's coverage. The Society welcomes applications from those who have advance book contracts, as well as those who have not yet made contact with a publisher. To view past recipients please click here.

<http://www.americanantiquarian.org/post-di ss. htm>

---

78. Researching the History of the Spanish Colonial Empire and Latin American Independence Movements Fellowship

Deadline: October 15, 2009

Award Amount: $40,000

The Lilly Library of Indiana University invites applications for fellowships during the academic year in support of research in the library's Bernardo Mendel collections. The Mendel Collection includes the history of the Spanish Colonial Empire, Latin American independence movements, European expansion in the Americas, voyages, travels and exploration, geography, navigation and cartography, German literature and history, and music, including sheet music. The amount of the stipend is based on the length of stay, which may range from one week to a full academic year. The fellowship is intended to cover travel to the Lilly Library and living expenses while in residence.

<http://www.indiana.edu/~lilly/fellowships.shtml>

---

79. Research Focused on the Social, Cultural, Economic or Political Development of Taiwan

Deadline: October 15, 2009

Award Amount: $6,400

The Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation for International Scholarly Exchange's Research grant program invites proposals that focus on the Social, Cultural, Economic or Political Development of Taiwan in the last few decades. Priority will be given to collaborative projects with scholars in Taiwan. Research grants are usually given for no more than two years. Scholars at academic institutions are eligible to apply for research grants. To view past recipients please click here.

<http://www.cckf.org/e-dornation.htm>

---

80. Minority Postdoctoral Research Fellowships in Social, Behavioral and Economic Sciences

Deadline: October 19, 2009

Award Amount: $60,000

The National Science Foundation offers postdoctoral research fellowships in selected areas to provide opportunities for recent doctoral scientists to obtain additional training, to gain research experience under the sponsorship of established scientists, and to broaden their scientific horizons beyond their research experiences during their undergraduate or graduate training. Postdoctoral fellowships are further designed to assist new scientists to direct their research efforts across traditional disciplinary lines and to avail themselves of unique research resources, sites, and facilities, including foreign locations. At the time of application, applicants must have earned the doctoral degree in an appropriate scientific field no more than 30 months before the deadline date of the application or plan to earn this degree no more than one year after the deadline date; have completed no more than 12 months (or full time equivalent) in a post doctoral research or lectureship position prior to the award; have not accepted any other full-time employment for the term of the fellowship; have proposed a research and training plan that falls within the program areas of SBE; and have explicitly explained in the proposal how the fellowship award will broaden participation of underrepresented minorities in the U.S. Research and training supported by Minority Postdoctoral Research Fellowships may be conducted at any appropriate U.S. or foreign host institution. Appropriate institutions include colleges and universities, most government and national laboratories and facilities, and privately-sponsored nonprofit institutes and museums, and, under special conditions, for-profit organizations. Click here to view abstracts of recent awards made through this program.

<http://www.nsf.gov/pubs/2009/nsf09595/nsf09595.htm>

---

81. Graduate Environmental Study Fellowship

Deadline: October 22, 2009

Award Amount: $37,000

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), as part of its Science to Achieve Results (STAR) program, is offering Graduate Fellowships for master's and doctoral level students in environmental fields of study. This Request for Application (RFA) solicits applications from students to perform graduate level investigation towards protecting human health and the environment. Applications are welcomed from students studying any academic discipline to the extent that the particular topic of research is related to EPA's mission. This includes students studying in ecology, economics, engineering, modeling, the health sciences, physical sciences, earth sciences, exposure sciences, social sciences, informational sciences, mathematical and computer sciences, and environmental sciences. Proposals may come from students in traditional and interdisciplinary academic disciplines; from students studying in emerging fields; from students utilizing multidisciplinary approaches and/or addressing multiple media; and, in areas which focus on environmental justice, environmental education, community-based participation, and/or environmental decision-making. The planned course of study and/or project must focus on one of the following topics of environmental significance: Global Change, Clean Air, Drinking Water, Water Quality: Hydrogeology and Surface Water, Water Quality: Coastal and Estuarine Processes, Human Health: Public Health Sciences, Human Health: Risk Assessment and Decision Making, Ecosystem Services: Aquatic Systems Ecology, Ecosystem Services: Terrestrial Systems Soil and Plant Ecology, Ecosystem Services: Terrestrial Systems Animal Ecology Pesticides and Toxic Substances, Land Protection, Science, Technology For Sustainability: Green Engineering/Building/Chemistry/Materials, Science & Technology for Sustainability: Energy Science & Technology for Sustainability, Environmental Behavior & Decision Making, Emerging Environmental Approaches: Informatics.

http://epa.gov/ncer/rfa/2009/2009\_star\_gradfellow.html#Interest/ExpectedOutputs

---

82. Documenting Complex Social and Political Issues with Photography Awards

Deadline: October 23, 2009

Award Amount: $2,000 royalty payment. When the exhibition tour is completed, photographers will receive the framed and matted work. The Open Society Institute (OSI) will cover the costs of returning work up to $750 for photographers based in the United States and $1,250 internationally.

The Open Society Institute invites photographers to submit a body of work for consideration in the Moving Walls 17 group exhibition. Moving Walls recognizes the brave and difficult work that photographers undertake globally in their documentation of complex social and political issues. Their images provide the world with human rights evidence, put faces onto a conflict, document the struggles and defiance of marginalized people, reframe how issues are discussed publicly, and provide opportunities for reflection and discussion. Through Moving Walls, OSI honors this work while visually highlighting the mission of our foundation to staff and visitors. Any emerging or veteran photographer who has completed a body of work on a human rights or social justice issue may apply for Moving Walls. Work in progress may be submitted as long as a substantial portion of the work has been completed. We will accept any genre of photography that is documentary in nature and is not staged or manipulated. In addition, priority will be given to work that addresses issues and geographic regions of concern to OSI.

http://www.soros.org/initiatives/photography/focus\_areas/mw

---

83. Travel Award for Students and Post-docs of Ethnic Origin

Deadline: October 25, 2009

Award Amount: $1,000

The Keystone Symposia is offering travel scholarships to Students and Post-docs of ethnic origin who are underrepresented in the life sciences community. To be eligible for an Underrepresented Minority Scholarship, you must be: A U.S. citizen or Resident Alien with a Green Card. A graduate or post-doctoral student currently enrolled in an academic program. One of the following ethnic origins: Hispanic/Latino, Black/African American, American Indian/Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander.

You must also:

Submit an abstract for the meeting you are applying for (with paid abstract fee). Complete the Underrepresented Minority Scholarship application on our website. Have your mentor verify your status as a student or post-doc.

<http://www.keystonesymposia.org/Scholarships/MinorityTravel.cfm?CFID=7538386&CFTOKEN=69400232>

---

84. Astrophysics Fellowship

Deadline: October 30, 2009

Award Amount: $60,500, plus a research budget of $16,000. Funds are also provided for health benefits and relocation expenses.

The Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory (SAO) invites applications for the Clay Postdoctoral Fellowship, which will be awarded to an outstanding researcher –or researchers--displaying significant promise in theory, observation, instrumentation, and/or laboratory experiments. Recent Ph.D. recipients are encouraged to apply. Applicants are expected to pursue research programs of their own conception and design, and they should state clearly why they believe that their professional goals would be furthered through research opportunities at the Center for Astrophysics (CfA). Applicants are expected to demonstrate their capability for original research through first-author refereed publications in major astronomy journals. Click here to view previous CfA Postdoctoral Fellows.

<http://www.cfa.harvard.edu/opportunities/fellowships/clay/program.html>

---

85. Hagley Museum and Library Fellowships: History of American Enterprise

Deadline: October 31, 2009

Award Amount: Stipends are for a minimum of two months and a maximum of six months at no more than $1,600 per month.

Hagley's collections document the interaction between business and the cultural, social, and political dimensions of our society from the late 18th century to the present. Fellowships honor the memory of Henry Belin du Pont, a founding trustee and long-time supporter of Hagley. The Henry Belin du Pont Memorial Fund supports access to and use of Hagley's research collections in the Hagley Museum and Library. They enable scholars to pursue advanced research and study in the library, archival, and artifact collections of the Hagley Museum and Library. Applicants must be from out of state and preference will be given to those whose travel costs to Hagley will be higher. Fellows are expected to participate in seminars which meet periodically, as well as attend noontime colloquia, lectures, and other public programs offered during their tenure. Low-cost accommodations may be available on the museum grounds.

<http://www.hagley.org/library/center/hbdupontfellow.html>

---

86. New American Fellowship

Deadline: November 1, 2009

Award Amount: $20,000 and tuition up to $16,000 per academic year

The Paul & Daisy Soros Fellowships for New Americans is to provide opportunities for continuing generations of able and accomplished New Americans to achieve leadership in their chosen fields. The Program is established in recognition of the contributions New Americans have made to American life and in gratitude for the opportunities the United States has afforded the donors and their family. A New American is an individual who (1) is a resident alien, i.e., holds a Green Card; or, (2) has been naturalized as a US citizen, or (3) is the child of two parents who are both naturalized citizens. The Program is open to individuals who retain loyalty and a sense of commitment to their country of origin as well as to the United States, but is intended to support individuals who will continue to regard the United States as their principal residence and focus of national identity. The applicant must either have a bachelor's degree or be in her/his final year of undergraduate study. Those who have a bachelor's degree may already be pursuing graduate study and may receive Fellowship support to continue that study. Individuals who are in the third, or subsequent, year of study in the same graduate program are not, however, eligible for this competition. Students who have received a master's degree in a program and are continuing for a doctoral degree in the same program are considered to have been in the same program from the time they began their work on their master's degree. To be eligible you must not be older than thirty years of age as of November 1, 2009.

<http://www.pdsoros.org/overview/>

---

87. History of Art, Architecture and Archaeology Research Projects

Deadline: November 1, 2009

Award Amount: $500-$2,500

The J. Paul Getty Trust's library research grants are intended for scholars of all nationalities and at any level who demonstrate a compelling need to use materials housed in the Research Library, and whose place of residence is more than eighty miles from the Getty Center. Projects must relate to specific items in the library collection. The Research Library at the Getty Research Institute focuses on the history of art, architecture, and archaeology with relevant materials in the humanities and social sciences. The range of the collections begins with prehistory and extends to contemporary art. Presently, the collections are strongest in the history of western European art and culture in Europe and North America; however, in recent years, they have expanded to include other areas, such as Latin America, Eastern Europe, and selected regions of Asia.

http://www.getty.edu/foundation/pdfs/09gri\_library\_research.pdf

-----

88. Garden and Landscape Fellowships

Deadline: November 1, 2009

Award Amount: $27,000-$47,000

The Dumbarton Oaks Research Library and Collection, in Washington, DC, an institute of Harvard University, supports Garden and Landscape Fellowships. The program seeks a balance between historical research and investigations of current practice, between inquiries at the scale of the garden and those addressing larger landscapes. The program invites consideration of all aspects of this interdisciplinary and international field: agricultural, architectural, art historical, botanical, cultural, ecological, economic, geographical, horticultural, social, and technological. Applicants are encouraged to consider topics from a variety of perspectives, including design, patronage, iconography, ideology, reception, preservation, landscape performance, and user experience; and using methods from other relevant fields of the humanities (art history and criticism, literary studies, philosophy) and of the social sciences (social history, cultural geography, cultural studies, social anthropology). Complementing a traditional focus on garden history, the program invites research into the impact of current environmental conditions-accelerated global urbanization and climate change, for example-on contemporary design. Whatever their topics or methods, however, all research proposals will be considered and evaluated on their own merits. Applicants may want to consider the suitability of their proposals to the resources available at Dumbarton Oaks and in Washington. The Garden Library Rare Book Collection is especially rich in American and European materials on architecture, botany, horticulture and all aspects of garden design, as well as in selected Chinese and Japanese texts; holdings include books, but also drawings, manuscripts and prints. The reference collection has a wider scope, collecting material on garden and landscape architecture throughout the world, together with some works in social history, anthropology, geography, and iconography, including a fast-growing collection of Asian publications relevant to recent research conducted at Dumbarton Oaks. The Contemporary Landscape Design Collection includes primary materials on approximately two dozen landscape designers and artists. Click here to view previous Garden and Landscape Fellows.

http://www.doaks.org/research/info\_fellowships.html

---

89. Researching Ernest Hemingway Fellowship

Deadline: November 1, 2009

Award Amount: $200-$1,000

The John F. Kennedy Library Foundation provides funds for the award of a number of research grants for scholars and students to help defray living, travel, and related costs incurred while doing research in the Ernest Hemingway Collection. Grant applications are evaluated on the basis of expected utilization of the Hemingway Collection, the degree to which they address research needs in Hemingway and related studies, and the qualifications of applicants. Preference is given to dissertation research by Ph.D. candidates working in newly opened or relatively unused portions of the Collection, but all proposals are welcome and will receive careful consideration

<http://www.jfklibrary.org/JFK+Library+and+Museum/Kennedy+Library+Foundation/Programs+and+Library+Support/Research+Grants+and+Fellowships/Ernest+Hemingway+Research+Grants.htm>

---

90. Kroc Institute Visiting Fellowships in International Peace Studies

Deadline: November 1, 2009

Award Amount: Junior Fellows up to $20,000 per semester; Senior Fellows up to $25,000 per semester

The Kroc Institute at the University Of Notre Dame brings together outstanding researchers focused on peace research. The Institute's current research emphases are: 1) the practice and theory of local, regional and global peace building, including the origins of armed conflict; 2) the role of global norms, networks, and institutions in the prevention of armed conflict; 3) the comparative study and analysis of peace processes; and 4) the role of religion in conflict and peace building (including a project on Christian Muslim relations). Applications at the postdoctoral and senior scholar level will be considered. Fellows have an office, library access, communications links, and document retrieval services. Housing is provided in furnished Institute apartments at no cost.

<http://kroc.nd.edu/research/visiting-research-fellowships>

---

91. Post Doctorate Fellowships in Anthropology

Deadline: November 1, 2009

Award amount: $40,000

Postdoctoral Fellowships support the writing-up of already completed research. The fellowship is awarded to scholars in the earlier stages of their careers, when they frequently lack the time and resources to develop their research for publication. Scholars with a Ph.D. in hand for no more than ten years (from the application deadline) are eligible to apply. A maximum of eight Hunt Postdoctoral Fellowships are awarded annually.

By providing funds for scholars to devote themselves full-time to writing, the Foundation aims to enable a new generation of scholars to publish significant works that will impact the development of anthropology. The program contributes to the Foundation's overall mission to support basic research in anthropology and to ensure that the discipline continues to be a source of vibrant and significant work that furthers our understanding of humanity's cultural and biological origins, development, and variation. The Foundation supports research that demonstrates a clear link to anthropological theory and debates, and promises to make a solid contribution to advancing these ideas. There is no preference for any methodology, research location, or subfield. The Foundation particularly welcomes proposals that employ a comparative perspective, can generate innovative approaches or ideas, and/or integrate two or more subfields.

<http://www.kauffman.org/entrepreneurship/entrepreneur-postdoctoral-fellows-program.aspx?gclid=CLWS84ylwZkCFYJM5QodFhg1vA>

-----
92. National Science Foundation Fellowships:

A. Interdisciplinary Fields of Study Fellowship

Deadline: November 2, 2009

B. Mathematical Sciences, Computer & Information Sciences and Engineering Fellowship

Deadline: November 4, 2009

C. Social Sciences, Psychology, and Geosciences Fellowship

Deadline: November 5, 2009

D. Life Sciences Fellowship

Deadline: November 6, 2009

E. Chemistry Fellowship

Deadline: November 10, 2009

F. Engineering Fellowship

Deadline: November 12, 2009

Award Amount: $40,500 each year for three years

The Graduate Research Fellowship provides three years of support for graduate study leading to research-based master's or doctoral degrees and is intended for students who are in the early stages of their graduate study. The Graduate Research Fellowship Program (GRFP) invests in graduate education for a cadre of diverse individuals who demonstrate their potential to successfully complete graduate degree programs in disciplines relevant to the mission of the National Science Foundation. Applicants may pursue graduate study at an institution in the United States or affiliate with a foreign institution that grants a graduate degree. All applicants are expected to have adequate preparation to begin graduate level study and research by Summer or Fall of 2010. In most cases, this will be demonstrated by a bachelor's degree earned prior to Fall 2010.

<http://www.nsf.gov/pubs/2009/nsf09603/nsf09603.htm>

*Please note: Dr. Karen Bradley in the UF Grad School, is the coordinator of NSF Fellowships on the University of Florida's campus.

---

93. Canada/U. S. Relations Research Program

Deadline: November 2, 2009

Award Amount: $15,000, $20,000 for priority topics and can demonstrate matching funds from other sources.

The Canadian Studies Grant Program supports study and research which aims to enhance and sustain the study of Canada and Canada-U.S. relations; to encourage research, exchanges, teaching, and dialogue; facilitate student mobility; and foster collaboration between researchers in the U.S. and Canada. Projects that focus on policy relevance for Canada and Canada-U.S. relations are requested. The topics that are highly relevant to Canada-U.S. relations include smart and secure borders; North American economic competitiveness; regulatory cooperation; Canada-U.S. trade and investment partnership; energy security and sustainability; environmental sustainability; emergency planning and management; Canada-U.S. security and defense cooperation; Canada in Afghanistan; global health policy; and changing demographics in North America. This program is intended for faculty members at accredited U.S. four-year colleges and universities, as well as scholars at American research institutions. Recent Ph.D. recipients who are citizens or permanent residents of the United States are also eligible to apply.

http://www.canadainternational.gc.ca/rep\_can\_am\_1/assets/pdfs/programs-programmes-en.pdf

---

94. Doctoral Student Research in Canada

Deadline: November 2, 2009

Award Amount: $10,000

The Doctoral Student Research Award promotes research that contributes to a better knowledge and understanding of Canada, its relationship with the United States, and its international affairs. Doctoral students will be provided with an opportunity to conduct part of their research in Canada. Projects that have policy relevance for Canada and Canada-U.S. relations are highly desired. The topics that are highly relevant to Canada-U.S. relations include smart and secure borders; North American economic competitiveness; regulatory cooperation; Canada-U.S. trade and investment partnership; energy security and sustainability; environmental sustainability; emergency planning and management; Canada-U.S. security and defense cooperation; Canada in Afghanistan; global health policy; and changing demographics in North America. Projects that include collaboration with researchers at Canadian institutions are strongly encouraged. The program is intended for doctoral students at accredited U.S. and Canadian four-year colleges and universities whose dissertations are related in substantial part to the study of Canada or Canada-U.S. relations. Candidates must be citizens or permanent residents of the United States and should have completed all doctoral requirements except the dissertation when they apply for a grant.

http://www.iccs-ci.ec.ca/pages/newweb/sample2/Doct2007\_en.asp?shownav=4

---

95. Predoctoral Fellowships Using Diversity as a Resource in Education

Deadline: November 9, 2009

Award Amount: $20,000

The Ford Foundation's Predoctoral Fellowships will be made to individuals who, in the judgment of the review panels, have demonstrated superior academic achievement, are committed to a career in teaching and research at the college or university level, show promise of future achievement as scholars and teachers, and are well prepared to use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of all students. In addition to the general eligibility requirements, eligibility to apply for a predoctoral fellowship is limited to:

- All citizens or nationals* of the United States regardless of race, national origin, religion, gender, age, disability, or sexual orientation (must have become a U.S. citizen by November 9, 2009),
- Individuals with evidence of superior academic achievement (such as grade point average, class rank, honors or other designations),
- Individuals committed to a career in teaching and research at the college or university level,
- Individuals enrolled in or planning to enroll in an eligible research-based program leading to a Ph.D. or Sc.D. degree at a U.S. educational institution, and
- Individuals who have not earned a doctoral degree at any time, in any field.

*The term "national of the United States" designates a citizen of the United States or a native resident of a possession of the United States. It does not refer to a U.S. permanent resident who is a citizen of another country. Criteria for Selection: The following will be considered as positive factors in choosing successful candidates: Evidence of superior academic achievement 1. Degree of promise of continuing achievement as scholars and teachers. 2. Capacity to respond in pedagogically productive ways to the learning needs of students from diverse backgrounds. 3. Sustained personal engagement with communities that are underrepresented in the academy and an ability to bring this asset to learning, teaching, and scholarship at the college and university level. 4. Likelihood of using the diversity of human experience as an educational resource in teaching and scholarship. 5. Membership in one or more of the following groups whose underrepresentation in the American professoriate has been severe and longstanding: Alaska Natives (Eskimo/Alut), Black/African-Americans, Mexican Americans/Chicanos/Chicanos, Native American Indians, Native Pacific Islanders (Polynesian/Micronesian), Puerto Ricans.

---

96. Creative Writing in English: Fiction and Poetry Fellowships

Deadline: November 9, 2009

Award Amount: $25,000

The Howard Foundation supports specifically early mid-career individuals, those who have achieved recognition for at least one major project in the field of Creative Writing in English: Fiction and Poetry. The fellowships will support individuals working on specific writing projects for the academic year 2010-2011. Appropriate candidates for a Howard Fellowship should have completed their formal studies within the past five to fifteen years and should also have successfully completed at least one major project beyond degree requirements that would be sufficient for the awarding of tenure at a research institution or for achieving comparable peer recognition, e.g., through publication. Candidates who are already nationally and internationally recognized leaders in their fields as reflected by their promotion to full professor or by comparable recognition in their fields of endeavor are not normally eligible for a Howard Fellowship. Applicants regardless of their citizenship, must be living in the U.S.

http://www.brown.edu/Divisions/Graduate\_School/Howard\_Foundation/

-----

97. Dissertation Fellowships in East European Studies

Deadline: November 11, 2009

Award Amount: $18,000

The American Council of Learned Societies supports writing dissertations in East European studies in all disciplines of the humanities and the social sciences. Funding is offered for two types of support: 1. Research Fellowships for use in Eastern Europe to conduct fieldwork or archival investigations; 2. Writing Fellowships for use in the United States, after all research is complete, to write the dissertation. Applications should be for work on Eastern Europe: Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Kosovo/a, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, and Slovenia. Applicants may propose comparative work considering more than one country of Eastern Europe or relating East European societies of those of other parts of the world. Fellowships will be granted on the basis of the scholarly potential of the applicant, the quality and scholarly importance of the proposed work, and its importance to the development of scholarship on Eastern Europe. Eligibility: currently enrolled graduate students who will have completed all requirements for the doctorate except the dissertation by June 2010 may apply for one-year support to complete the dissertation. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of the United States.

<http://www.acls.org/grants/Default.aspx?id=532>

-----

98. Dissertation Fellowship in the Humanities

Deadline: November 14, 2009

Award Amount: $25,000

The Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR) is pleased to offer fellowships funded by The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation for graduate students who are enrolled in a doctoral program in a graduate school in the United States, will complete all doctoral requirements except the dissertation and be ready. The Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory (SAO) invites applications for the Clay Postdoctoral Fellowship, which will be awarded to an outstanding researcher --or researchers-- displaying significant promise in theory, observation, instrumentation, and/or laboratory experiments. Recent Ph.D. recipients are encouraged to apply. Applicants are expected to pursue research programs of their own conception and design, and they should state clearly why they believe that their professional goals would be furthered through research opportunities at the Center for Astrophysics (CfA). Applicants are expected to demonstrate their capability for original research through first-author refereed publications in major astronomy journals. Click here to view previous CfA Postdoctoral Fellows.

<http://www.cfa.harvard.edu/opportunities/fellowships/clay/program.html>

---

99. Information Services to Improve Health Care and Advances in Biomedical Research Fellowship

Deadline: November 15, 2009

Award Amount: $9,945

The Medical Library Association's, Donald A. B. Lindberg Research Fellowship funds research aimed at expanding the research knowledgebase, linking the information services provided by librarians to improve health care and advance in biomedical research.

<http://www.mlanaet.org/awards/grants/Lindberg.html>

---

100. Health Education Doctoral Fellowship

Deadline: November 15, 2009

Award Amount: $10,000

Presented by The American Association for Health Education (AAHE), and sponsored by the Will Rogers' Institute, this fellowship award is open to graduate students who have completed at least one year of doctoral study (2 years preferred) in a health education program at an accredited college/university in the United States or a U.S. territory. (If the health education degree program exists under another title such as health promotion or community or public health, the health education relationship must be identified.) 2. A history of work related to research in lung health or your commitment to conduct lung health research during your doctoral studies 3. The student must have a minimum, current, overall grade point average of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale. Recipients may utilize the award in any manner to support their educational activities. Upon completion of doctoral studies the recipient will submit a final report to the funding agency detailing the outcome of the fellowship studies. The awarded fellowship will be recognized at the annual Awards Luncheon at the AAHE annual meeting.

http://iweb.aahperd.org/aahe/heawards/PDF/will\_rogers.pdf

---

101. School Health Education Fellowship

Deadline: November 15, 2009

Award Amount: $3,000

The American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance's (AAHPERD) Pollock Fellowship will be presented to a talented and committed teacher in an elementary, middle school, or high school for graduate study at the master's level. The applicant must be currently enrolled in an accredited college/university in the United States or a U.S. territory in a health education program and be able to demonstrate six (6) completed credit hours in the program of study. The Pollock Fellowship recipient will be recognized at the annual Awards Luncheon at the American Association of Health Education (AAHE)/AAHPERD convention. The recipient will also receive a one-year complimentary graduate student membership in AAHE.

<http://iweb.aahperd.org/aahe/heawards/Pollock.html>

---

102. Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, and Natural Sciences
Postdoctoral Fellowships for Women

Deadline: November 15, 2009

Award Amount: $30,000

The American Association of University Women (AAUW) American Fellowships support women doctoral candidates completing dissertations or scholars seeking funds for postdoctoral research leave from accredited institutions. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Candidates are evaluated on the basis of scholarly excellence, teaching experience, and active commitment to helping women and girls through service in their communities, professions, or fields of research.

http://www.aauw.org/education/fga/fellowships\_grants/

---

103. American Association of University Women American Fellowships

Deadline: November 15, 2009

Award Amount: $20,000 for Dissertations, $30,000 for Post-Doc.
$6,000 for short term summer research

AAUW American Fellowships support women doctoral candidates completing dissertations, scholars seeking funds for postdoctoral research leave from accredited institutions; or scholars preparing research for publication.

http://www.aauw.org/fga/fellowships\_grants/american.cfm

---

104. Lesbian and Gay Studies

Deadline: November 15, 2009

Award Amount: $5,000 and $7,500

The Center for Lesbian and Gay Studies offers: Joan Heller-Diane Bernard Fellowships in Lesbian and Gay Studies - two awards for research into the impact of lesbians and gay men on U.S. society and culture Martin Duberman Fellowship to a senior scholar for scholarly research on the lesbian/gay/bisexual/transgender/queer experience.

<http://web.gc.cuny.edu/Ciags/awards.shtml#duberman>

<http://web.gc.cuny.edu/Ciags/awards.shtml#heller>

---

105. Research in Germany

Deadlines: November 15, 2009

Award Amount: $1,265

The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) offers scholarships to graduate students, Ph.D. candidates, and beginning postdoctoral researchers for 1 to 10 months of study or research in Germany.

<http://www.daad.org/?p=gradresearch>

---

106. Research Scholars Invited to the School of Social Science

Deadline: November 15, 2009

Award Amount: $30,000-$40,000

Each year, the School of Social Science at the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton, NJ, invites 15-20 scholars to be in residence for the full academic year to pursue their own research. The School welcomes applications in economics, political science, law, psychology, sociology and anthropology. It encourages social scientific work with an historical and humanistic bent and also entertains applications in history, philosophy, literary criticism, literature and linguistics. Applicants must have a Ph.D. at the time of application. The theme for 2009-2010 is "Education, Schools, and the State." Applications that do not fall within the parameters of the theme will also receive full consideration.

<http://www.sss.ias.edu/applications/>

---

107. Latin Language and Culture

Deadline: November 16, 2008

The American Philological Association invites applications for a one year, $50,400 fellowship, tenable from July 2009 through June 2010, with the possibility of renewal for 1 additional year, to participate in the work of the Thesaurus Linguae Latinae Institute in Munich. Fellows at the TLL develop a broadened perspective of the range and complexity of the Latin language and culture from the classical period through the early Middle Ages, contribute signed articles to the Thesaurus, have the opportunity to participate in a collaborative international research project, and work with senior scholars in the field of Latin lexicography.

<http://www.apaclassics.org/Administration/TLL.html>

---

108. Research in Eastern Europe and Eurasia

Deadline: November 17, 2009

The Individual Advanced Research Opportunities Program of the International Research and Exchanges Board (IREX) provides fellowships to master's and predoctoral students and postdoctoral scholars from the U.S. for individual policy-relevant research in Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Georgia, Hungary, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Ukraine, or Uzbekistan. Limited funding is also available for non-policy-relevant topics. Grants of 1-3 months for master's students and 2-9 months for the other categories include round-trip airfare, visa fees, and a stipend for living expenses, and a housing allowance.

http://www.irex.org/programs/us\_scholars/index.asp

---

109. Dissertation Fellowship in the Humanities

Deadline: November 14, 2009

Award Amount: $25,000

The Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR) is pleased to offer fellowships funded by The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation for graduate students who are enrolled in a doctoral program in a graduate school in the United States, will complete all doctoral requirements except the dissertation and be ready The Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory (SAO) invites applications for the Clay Postdoctoral Fellowship, which will be awarded to an outstanding researcher --or researchers-- displaying significant promise in theory, observation, instrumentation, and/or laboratory experiments. Recent Ph.D. recipients are encouraged to apply. Applicants are expected to pursue research programs of their own conception and design, and they should state clearly why they believe that their professional goals would be furthered through research opportunities at the Center for Astrophysics (CfA). Applicants are expected to demonstrate their capability for original research through first-author refereed publications in major astronomy journals. Click here to view previous CfA Postdoctoral Fellows.

<http://www.cfa.harvard.edu/opportunities/fellowships/clay/program.html>

---

110. Physical Sciences and Engineering Future Fellowships for Women Faculty

Deadline: November 30, 2009

Award Amount: $25,000 - $50,000

The Schlumberger Foundation is accepting applications for the 2010 Faculty for the Future fellowships. Fellowships will be awarded to women from developing and emerging economies who are preparing for Ph.D. or postdoctoral study in the physical sciences, engineering, and related disciplines to pursue advanced graduate study at top universities in their disciplines abroad. Candidates should be enrolled or applying to their selected graduate schools when submitting their Faculty for the Future grant request. Candidates must have a proven track record of teaching experience, demonstrate active participation in faculty life and outreach to encourage young women into the sciences, and hold an excellent academic record. Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- be a citizen of a developing or emerging country
- be preparing for PhD or post-doctoral study in the physical sciences or related disciplines
- have a proven track record of teaching experience
- can demonstrate active participation in faculty life and outreach work to encourage young women into the sciences
- hold an excellent academic record

<http://www.slb.com/content/about/foundation/facultyfuture.asp?>

---

111. Studies in Greek Language, Literature, History, Archaeology, Philosophy, and Art Fellowship

Deadline: December 1, 2009

Award Amount: $20,000 for five months and $40,000 for ten months

The National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) Fellowship program at the American School of Classical Studies at Athens offers two major research libraries: 1. the Blegen, with 90,000 volumes dedicated to the ancient Mediterranean world; and 2. the Gennadius, with 113,000 volumes and archives devoted to post-classical Hellenic civilization and, more broadly, the Balkans and the eastern Mediterranean. The School also sponsors excavations and provides centers for advanced research in archaeological and related topics at its excavations in the Athenian Agora and Corinth, and it houses an archaeological laboratory at the main building complex in Athens. By agreement with the Greek government, the School is authorized to serve as liaison with the Greek

Ministry of Culture on behalf of American students and scholars for the acquisition of permits to excavate and to study museum collections. In the fourteen years since its inception, the NEH Fellowship program at the American School has demonstrated its effectiveness by supporting projects for twenty-seven scholars with distinguished research and teaching careers in the humanities. Eligibility: Postdoctoral scholars and professionals in relevant fields such as architecture or art who are U.S. citizens or foreign nationals who have lived in the U.S. for the three years immediately preceding the application deadline. Applicants must hold their Ph.D. or equivalent terminal degree at the time of application.

http://ascsa.edu.gr/pdf/uploads/neh\_bulletin.pdf

---

112. Institute of American History Research and Dissertation Fellowships

Deadline: December 1, 2009

Award amount: $1,500-$4,000

These Fellowships support work in one of five archives: The Gilder Lehrman Collection, on deposit at the New-York Historical Society; The Library of the New-York Historical Society; The Columbia University Rare Book and Manuscript Library; The New York Public Library Humanities and Social Sciences Library; and The Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture (NYPL). Postdoctoral scholars at every faculty rank, as well as journalists and independent scholars are eligible for Research Fellowships; doctoral candidates who have completed exams and begun dissertation reading and writing are eligible for Dissertation Fellowships.

<http://www.gilderlehrman.org/index.php>

---

113. International Collaborative Research Grant in Anthropology

Deadline: December 1, 2009

Award Amount: $30,000

Proposals must involve collaboration between two or more researchers of different nationalities who are working in different countries. Each researcher must hold a doctorate or equivalent qualification in anthropology or a related discipline. Scholars are eligible without regard to institutional or departmental affiliation. Priority is given to those projects involving at least one principal investigator who is a citizen of, and is working and residing in a country where anthropology is underrepresented and where there are limited resources to develop the discipline [click here for country list]. Other international collaborations will, however, be given serious consideration where they are consistent with at least two of the following aims of the Foundation to:

- Bring together researchers with different national perspectives that complement each other and enrich the research.

- Strengthen anthropology in countries where there are limited resources to support its development.
- Combine different areas of expertise and knowledge that will benefit both researchers.

<http://www.wennergren.org/programs/>

---

114. Fellowship Support for Recent Doctorial Recipients

Deadline: December 9, 2009

Award Amount: $30,000

ACLS invites applications for the second annual competition for the Mellon/ACLS Recent Doctorial Recipients Fellowships. This is the second stage of the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation/ACLS Early Career Fellowship Program, which provides support for young scholars. The first part of this program—the Mellon/ACLS Dissertation Completion Fellowships—makes possible a year of supported research and writing, to help students complete their dissertation. The second part of the program provides support for a year following the completion of the doctorate for scholars to advance their research. A grant from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation supports this program.

<http://www.acls.org/grants/Default.aspx?id=514>

---

115. Postdoctoral Fellowship in Academic Libraries

Deadline: December 30, 2009

Award Amount: Remuneration varies by sponsoring institution; benefits and some travel expenses are also provided. Depending on the institution, fellowships are for either one or two years.

The Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR) fellowship provides new scholars in the humanities a unique opportunity to develop expertise in the new forms of scholarly research and the information resources that support them, both traditional and digital, that are challenging research institutions. The program offers fellowships to individuals who believe that there are opportunities to develop meaningful linkages among disciplinary scholarship, libraries, archives, and evolving digital tools. Former fellows have high placement rates as researchers and professionals in academic libraries and as members of teaching faculties. Applicants must have earned their Ph.D.s in disciplines in the humanities within the past five years (or earn them before starting the program). All fields in the humanities will be considered. Click here to view current and past fellows.

<http://www.clir.org/fellowships/postdoc/postdoc.html>

---

116. Researching Nantucket's Historical Library Collection Fellowship

Deadline: December 31, 2009

Award Amount: $900, Travel expenses reimbursed up to $600.

The Nantucket Historical Association (NHA) annual fellowship, the E. Geoffrey and Elizabeth Thayer Verney Fellowship, encourages research in the collections of the Nantucket Historical Association Research Library and is open to academics, graduate students, and independent scholars. The Nantucket Historical Association is the principal repository of Nantucket history, with extensive archives, collections of historic properties, and art and artifacts that broadly illustrate Nantucket's past. Topics of research for recent scholars have included health aboard whale ships, women at sea, scrimshaw, samplers, local artists, Nantucket's architectural heritage, Quakerism, the African-American and Cape Verdean communities, the Quaise Asylum, and abolitionism. The E. Geoffrey and Elizabeth Thayer Verney Fellow resides in the Thomas Macy House, a historic property owned by the association, for up to a three-week period. Housing is available January - May and October - December 2010. NHA Visiting Research Scholars are expected to produce an article suitable for publication in the summer edition of Historic Nantucket, the NHA's quarterly journal, and to deliver a public lecture on the subject of their research, as well as a presentation to NHA staff. Projects resulting in the publication of a book, article, conference paper, or other media, are looked upon favorably.

<http://www.nha.org/library/verney.html>

---

117. Rich Diversity of Human Culture Book Awards

Deadline: December 31, 2009

Award Amount: $10,000

The Cleveland Foundation's Anisfield-Wolf Book Awards recognizes books that have made important contributions to our understanding of racism and our appreciation of the rich diversity of human cultures. Books that open and challenge peoples minds are requested. Past winners have presented the extraordinary art and culture of peoples around the world, explored human rights violations, exposed the effects of racism on children, reflected on growing up bi-racial and illuminated the dignity of people as they search for justice. To be eligible, books must be written in English and published in the previous year. Awards are given for both fiction and non-fiction, with winners being announced in the spring. Works of poetry are eligible for the fiction prize. All submitted materials become the property of the Anisfield-Wolf Book Awards and will not be returned. Click here to view previous winners.

<http://www.clevelandfoundation.org/AffiliatedPrograms/BookAwards.html>

---

118. The International Scholar Rescue Fund

Deadline: January 1, 2010, April 1, 2010, and September 1, 2010

Award Amount: up to US $25,000, plus health insurance

The Institute of International Education announces its Scholar Rescue Fund program.

Professors, established researchers and other senior academics from any country, field or discipline may qualify. Applications are reviewed for academic qualifications, the quality/potential of the candidate's work, and the urgency of threats faced. Preference is given to scholars

- who are facing immediate, severe and targeted threats to their lives and/or careers in their home country or country of residence;
- with a Ph.D. or other highest degree in their field who have extensive teaching or research experience at a university, college or other institution of higher learning;
- who demonstrate superior academic accomplishment or promise;
- whose selection is likely to benefit the academic community in the home and/or host country or region.

Applications from female scholars and scholars who are members of ethnic, racial, cultural or religious minority groups, or those otherwise underrepresented in their field, are encouraged. Fellowships are approved by the SRF Selection Committee which convenes at least three (3) times per year. The final fellowship award is dependent upon the location of the host institution, the cost of living, and the value of any additional contributions from the host institution or other source. Host academic institutions agree to accept the fellowship funds and disburse the funds to the scholar. In most cases, host institutions are required to match the SRF fellowship award through partial salary/stipend support, research materials, and other in-kind assistance.

<http://www.scholarescuefund.org/pages/intro.php>

---

119. Literature Fellowships: Translation Projects

Deadline: January 7, 2010

Through fellowships to published translators, the Arts Endowment supports projects for the translation of specific works of prose, poetry, or drama from other languages into English. Application materials are available online only. The deadline is January 9, 2009. Grants are for $12,500 or $25,000, depending upon the artistic excellence and merit of the project. If you have questions concerning the Literature Fellowships please call the Literature Fellowship Hotline at 202/682-5034 or email davisg@arts.gov.

<http://arts.endow.gov/grants/apply/LitTranslation/index.html>

---

120. Research Scholarship in Photograph Conservation 2009–2011

Deadline: January 8, 2010

Award Amount: The stipend amount is $40,000 per year, plus a $3,000 travel allowance and a $2,000 contribution to health insurance.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art seeks qualified applicants for the position of Research Scholar in photograph conservation. The Research Scholar will have a two-year term with the possibility of renewal for a third year and will work on site in the photograph conservation lab of the Metropolitan's Sherman Fairchild Center for Works on Paper and Photograph Conservation. The Research Scholar will report to the Sherman Fairchild Conservator of Photographs, who in turn reports to the Curator in Charge of the Department of Photographs.

http://www.metmuseum.org/education/photograph\_conservation.html

---

121. Newberry Library Long-Term Fellowships

Deadline: January 11, 2010

Award Amount: $70,000

The Newberry Library is an independent research library concentrating in the humanities. It houses a non-circulating collection of rare books, maps, and manuscripts. The library's holdings span the history and culture of Western Europe from the middle Ages to the mid-twentieth century and the Americas from the time of first contact between Europeans and Native Americans. Its strengths include European discovery, exploration, and settlement of the Americas; the American West; local history, family history, and genealogy; literature and history of the Midwest, especially the Chicago Renaissance; Native American history and literature; the Renaissance; the French Revolution; Portuguese and Brazilian history; British literature and history; the history of cartography; the history and theory of music; the history of printing; and early philology and linguistics. The collections number 1,500,000 printed titles, five million manuscript pages, and 300,000 historic maps. The National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowships are for established scholars to support projects in any field appropriate to the library's collections. history, and genealogy; literature and history of the Midwest, especially the Chicago Renaissance; Native American history and literature; the Renaissance; the French Revolution; Portuguese and Brazilian history; British literature and history; the history of cartography; the history and theory of music; the history of printing; and early philology and linguistics. The collections number 1,500,000 printed titles, five million manuscript pages, and 300,000 historic maps.

<http://www.newberry.org/research/fellowship/long-term.html>

---

122. Latino History, Art, and Culture Fellowships

Deadline: January 15, 2010

Award Amount: $27,000

The Smithsonian Institute's Latino Studies Fellowship Program offers awards to US Latino/a predoctoral students and postdoctoral or senior scholars to pursue research related to Latino history, art, and culture using Smithsonian resources. Fellowship appointments are for up to twelve months with the opportunity to spend up to a third of the time in the field but not at the home institution.

<http://www.si.edu/ofg/Applications/LSFELL/LSFELLapp.htm>

---

123. Kress Foundation Curatorial Fellowships

Deadline: January 15, 2010

Award Amount: $30,000

Four $30,000 Kress Curatorial Fellowships for one-year internships for curatorial training in European art at an American museum.

Restrictions: Restricted to individuals who have completed a Ph.D. in the history of European art.

<http://www.kressfoundation.org/cutarfelli.html>

---

124. Environmental Research and Education Fellowship

Deadline: January 15, 2010

Award Amount: $47,000

The Smithsonian Institution offers fellowships in fields that are actively pursued by the museums and research organizations of the Institution. These fellowships support research in residence at all Smithsonian facilities except the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory. At present, the fields fellowship are available for: Animal behavior, ecology, and environmental science, including an emphasis on the tropics, Anthropology, including archaeology, Astrophysics and astronomy, Earth sciences and paleobiology, Evolutionary and systematic biology, History of science and technology, History of art, especially American, contemporary, African, and Asian art, twentieth-century, American crafts, and decorative arts Social and cultural history of the United States Folklife Materials Research. Postdoctoral Fellowships are offered to scholars who have held the degree or equivalent for less than seven years. Senior Fellowships are offered to scholars who have held the degree or equivalent for seven years or more. Predoctoral Fellowships are offered to doctoral candidates who have completed preliminary course work and examinations. Candidates must have the approval of their universities to conduct doctoral research at the Smithsonian Institution. The term is 3 to 12 months. The stipend is $27,000 per year plus allowances. Graduate Student Fellowships are offered to students formally enrolled in a graduate program of study, who have completed at least one semester, and not yet been advanced to candidacy if in a Ph.D. Program. Applicants must submit a proposal for research in a discipline, which is pursued at the Smithsonian. The term is 10 weeks; the stipend is $6,000.

http://www.serc.si.edu/pro\_training/fellowships/fellowships.aspx

---

125. Nieman Fellowships for Journalists

Deadline: January 31, 2010 for U.S. Journalists and Global Health reporting applicants, December 15, 2010 for international journalists.

Award Amount: The U.S. Fellowships include tuition, a $60,000 stipend and housing and childcare support. Special funding arrangements apply to international fellows.

Nieman Fellowships provide a mid-career opportunity for journalists to spend a year of learning and reflection at Harvard. Fellowships are awarded to 12 U.S. journalists and 12 from other countries. The Foundation also awards 2 fellowships in Global Health reporting Fellows design an individual course of study and participate in Nieman seminars. The Nieman Fellowship program is the oldest and best-known mid-career program for journalists in the world. More than 1,300 journalists from the U.S. and 88 other countries have come to Harvard for a year of learning, exploration and fellowship. Nieman Fellows are provided the opportunity to step back from deadlines, renew their intellectual curiosity and enrich their understanding of the topics they cover.

<http://www.nieman.harvard.edu/NiemanFoundation.aspx>

---

126. Fund for Independent Musicology Scholars

Deadline: January 25, 2010 and July 25, 2010

Award Amount: $500-$2,000

The purpose of the American Musicology Society's Janet Levy Fund is to support professional travel and research expenses for independent scholars who are members of the American Musicological Society. The award is open to members of the American Musicological Society who hold the Ph.D. or similar degree (e.g., D.M.A. in Historical Performance), who are not employed as a full-time faculty member in an institution of higher learning, and who are not emeritus faculty. No individual may receive a Levy Award more than once in a three-year period. Kinds of Projects: Examples of projects supported by the Levy Fund include travel to the Annual Meeting of the AMS, to a conference to read a paper or participate in an official capacity, or to archives or research libraries; research expenses; microfilms; and specialized research materials.

<http://www.ams-net.org/awards/levy.php>

---

127. Spencer Education Fellowship

Deadline: January 31, 2010

Award amount: Three Fellowships will be awarded with stipends of $75,000 each.

The Fellowships are open to journalists, educators, and education policy researchers who interested in creating significant works of long-form education journalism.

The fellowship combines course work in residence at Columbia University with intense individual help with each fellow's project on some aspect of education in the United States.

Applicants must demonstrate their reporting and writing abilities through newspaper and magazine clips, books, monographs, academic reports, or other writing samples. The chief criterion for selection is the potential for research and writing excellence, and impact on the national discourse, in the field of education. An outline of a proposed project in education reporting--projects that are already underway are eligible--must accompany all applications. Preference will be given to those who can show the likelihood of publication for their idea, either through a letter of commitment from a news organization or a book contract.

<http://www.journalism.columbia.edu/cs/ContentServer/jrn/1175372796716/page>

---

128. Researching Problems of Violence, Aggression, and Dominance Fellowship

Deadline: February 1, 2010

Award Amount: $15,000-$30,000

The Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundation sponsors scholarly research on problems of violence, aggression, and dominance. The foundation provides both research grants to established scholars and dissertation fellowships to graduate students during the dissertation-writing year. The foundation welcomes proposals from any of the natural and social sciences and the humanities that promise to increase the understanding of the causes, manifestations, and control of violence, aggression, and dominance. Click here to view past projects.

<http://www.hfg.org/>

---

129. Social Entrepreneurship Awards

Deadline: February 10, 2010

Award Amount: $1,000,000

The Skoll Foundation's Awards for Social Entrepreneurship support social entrepreneurs whose work has the potential for large-scale influence on critical challenges of our time: tolerance and human rights, health, economic and social equity, peace and security, institutional responsibility, and environmental sustainability. These issues are at the heart of the foundation's vision of empowering people to create a peaceful, prosperous, sustainable world. Within these issues, they are particularly interested in applications from social entrepreneurs working in five critical sub-issue areas that threaten the survival of humanity – climate change, nuclear proliferation, pandemics, conflict in the Middle East and water scarcity. View past recipients here.

<http://www.skollfoundation.org/skollawards/index.asp>

---

130. Teaching American History and/or American Government Fellowships

Deadline: March 10, 2010

Award Amount: $24,000

The James Madison Memorial Fellowship Foundation offers James Madison Fellowships to a select group of individuals desiring to become outstanding teachers of the American Constitution. You must be a U.S. citizen or U.S. national to apply for a James Madison Fellowship. James Madison Fellows are expected to complete one of the following:

- Master of Arts (MA)
- Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT)
- Master of Education (MEd) with an emphasis on American history, government, political science, or other relevant concentration.

<http://www.act.org/madison/faq.html>

---

131. Unsung Heroes Award Program for Teachers

Deadline: April 30, 2010

Award Amount: Top winner-$25,000, Second place-$10,000, third place-$5,000.

Are you an educator with a class project that is short on funding but long on potential? Do you know a teacher looking for grant dollars? ING Unsung Heroes® could help you turn great ideas into reality for students. Grants for full time teachers employed at accredited U.S. Public or private schools may apply.

<http://www.ingusa.com/us/aboutING/CorporateCitizenship/Education/INGUnsungHeroes/index.htm>

---

132. Individual Artist Fellowship Program

Deadline: June 1, 2010

Award Amount: $5,000

The Individual Artist Fellowship Program recognizes the creation of new artworks by individuals of exceptional talent and demonstrated ability. Fellowship awards support the general artistic and career advancement of the individual artist.

<http://www.florida-arts.org/grants/fellowship/index.htm>

---

133. International Science and Technology Award

Deadline: December 30, 2010

Award Amount: The Award recipients receive assistance in gaining admission to prestigious U.S. institutions and three years of fiscal support which includes: academic tuition and fee coverage, a monthly living stipend, book and supplies allowance, conference and research allowances, health and accident coverage, round trip airfare from home country to the United States, and specially tailored enrichment activities.

The International Fulbright Science and Technology Award for Outstanding Foreign Students provides talented students with an opportunity to pursue Ph.D. study at top U.S. universities. Sponsored by the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs of the U.S. Department of State, the Award is designed to be the most prestigious international scholarship in science and technology. This Award Program, an outcome of the 2006 U.S. University Presidents Summit cosponsored by the U.S. Department of State and U.S. Department of Education, demonstrates the United States' commitment to welcoming top-notch future researchers and leaders to pursue serious scientific study and research at U.S. institutions. To be eligible you must:

- be a citizen of a country where there is an active Fulbright Foreign Student Program;
- apply through the Fulbright Commission or U.S. Embassy in your country of citizenship; and
- have completed study equivalent to a U.S. Bachelor's degree on or before August 2010. It is highly recommended that your prior degree study be in the same field of study, or a related field of study, for which you wish to pursue Ph.D. study.

Click here to view current fellows.

<http://foreign.fulbrightonline.org/scienceandtech.html?CFID=7538157&CFTOKEN=71619168>

---