

A RHETORICAL ANALYSIS OF EDITORIALS OF THE TAMPA
TRIBUNE ON THE CRISIS IN PUBLIC EDUCATION,
FEBRUARY 16, 1968, TO MARCH 8, 1968

by

Sylvia Sarrett

A thesis submitted in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Arts in the Department of Speech

The University of South Florida

June, 1969

Thesis Supervisor: Professor Hermann G. Stelzner

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter

I. INTRODUCTION	1
Introduction	1
Purpose, Limitations, and Justification	3
Significance of the Tribune As An Agent in the Crisis	6
Methodology	7
Definition of Terms	9
Background of the School Crisis	10
II. THE NATURE OF THE PROBLEM	22
Introduction	22
The Tribune's Analysis of Legislative Bill 77X	23
The Use of Polarity	30
The Creation of Believability	33
III. THE RAMIFICATIONS OF THE PROBLEM	40
Introduction	40
The Development of the Power Issue	41
The Creation of Believability	46
IV. THE SOLUTIONS TO THE PROBLEM	57
Introduction	57
The Solution of "Keep the Schools Open"	58
The Solution of "Limit the Power of the FEA".	60
The Solution of an "Inconsistent Enemy"	61
V. CONCLUSION	70
Bibliography	77
Vita	80

LIST OF TABLES

Table

1. Where The Money Goes	26
2. Where New School Money Goes In Five Counties . .	27