

TREATMENT OF THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN OF 1928 BY THE FLORIDA PRESS

268

By
SAMUEL STUBBS TALBERT

A THESIS PRESENTED TO THE GRADUATE COUNCIL OF
THE UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA
IN PARTIAL FULFILMENT OF THE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

September, 1947

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER	PAGE
I. INTRODUCTION	1
The Problem
Review of the Literature
Organization and Procedure
II. BACKGROUND FOR CONTROVERSY	8
Voting Traditions in Florida
Attitudes on Religion
Attitudes on Prohibition
Prosperity in Florida
Other Factors
The race question
Southern leaders
Political personalities
Rural-southern culture in the cities
III. TREATMENT OF THE RELIGIOUS ISSUE	19
Protestant Ministers
Straton's Activities
Lay Groups
Hoover's Religion
Smith's Sincerity
The Bogus Oath
Schools and Religion
Religion and the Constitution

Mr 48 NLR
Graduated 1.57

CHAPTER	PAGE
Tolerance and Tourists
Catholicism and Americanism
IV. THE PROHIBITION ISSUE.	36
Smith's Stand on Liquor
Activities of Dry Groups
Temperance of the Candidates
Enforcement
Appeals to the Churches
V. PARTY LOYALTY AND SOUTHERN TRADITIONS	47
Who Bolted the Party
The Party Oath
Reasons for Bolting
The Southern Birthright
Party Unity
VI. WHITE SUPREMACY.	63
Negative Support
The Candidates and the Negro
The Anti-Lynching Bill
White Man's Party
VII. PERSONALITIES.	77
Personal Histories
Humanity versus Efficiency
The Leopard's Spots
Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Hoover

CHAPTER	PAGE
VIII. PLATFORM AND PARTY RECORD.	93
Platforms
Tammany
Republican Corruption
The Farmer and Labor
Foreign Affairs
IX. PROSPERITY	106
Myth or Reality?
Effects on Florida
X. APPEALS TO PRESTIGE.	113
State Leaders
National Figures
Organizations
Historical Figures
XI. WHISPERING CAMPAIGN	128
Nature of the Whispers
Official Attitudes
Sources
XII. PREDICTIONS.	136
Local Elections
Observers See
Straw Balloting
Ovations
XIII. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.	142
Religion
Loyalty to Party

CHAPTER	PAGE
Race
Prohibition
Other Letters
XIV. SPECIAL TECHNIQUES	162
Treatment of News Items
Cartoons and Photographs
Appeals to Women
Advertisements
Other Propaganda Agents
XV. RESULTS OF THE ELECTION.	173
The Negro Population and the Vote by Counties
Relationships of Rural-Farm Composition of the Population to the Vote
Prosperity and the Vote by Counties
Religious Composition of the Population and the Vote by Counties
The Vote for President Compared with the Vote for Governor
XVI. SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS.	193
Summary
Conclusions
Some principles of campaign publicity derived from the study
An evaluation of campaign publicity from the standpoint of effectiveness

CHAPTER	PAGE
Ethical considerations
Relative importance of the issues
XVII BIBLIOGRAPHY	209
Books and Special Studies
Periodicals
Newspapers

LIST OF TABLES

TABLE		PAGE
I.	Analysis of 214 Letters to Editors from Ten Florida Newspapers	143
II.	Comparative Data--Characteristics of Counties and Election Returns--1928	187

LIST OF FIGURES

FIGURE		PAGE
1.	Vote for President--1928, by Counties. . . .	174
2.	Concentration of Negro Population--1930. . . .	177
3.	Concentration of Rural-Farm Population--1930 .	179
4.	Savings Deposits in Banks January 1, 1929. . .	181
5.	Distribution of Catholics, by Counties--1926 .	183
6.	Vote For Governor, General Election--1928. . .	185