Town Meeting Notes
May 25, 2006
Government in the Sunshine:  Barbara Wingo

- Dr. Barbara Wingo, Interim General Counsel for the University of Florida discussed Florida’s open government laws. The Government in the Sunshine law provides a right of access to meetings of boards or commissions. A reasonable notice of such meetings must be given and minutes of the meeting must be taken.
- Dr. Wingo further discussed what constitutes a board or commission along with the issue of public record and the UF record retention schedule.
