Notas Biográficas e Históricas

Ernesto Chávez Álvarez nació en La Habana en 1942. En 1960, a los dieciocho años Chávez se unió a la primera generación en graduarse de la escuela para maestros de Minas del Frío. Durante los primeros años que siguieron a la Revolución Cubana, estos maestros participaron en campañas de alfabetización para niños y adultos en zonas rurales remotas en la Sierra Maestra, la Sierra de los Órganos en Pinar del Río y El Escambray. La participación de estos maestros en la campaña fue parte de la misión del gobierno revolucionario de eliminar el analfabetismo entre los campesinos. Durante su servicio, Chávez fue testigo de las rebeliones de campesinos y fue víctima de la campaña difamatoria del comunista Félix Torres, quien pretendió difamar a los maestros y trabajadores de la compañía de alfabetización de ser contrarrevolucionarios. Chávez acabó su servicio en 1964.

Chávez obtuvo una licenciatura en geografía de la Universidad de La Habana en 1972. Durante el 1977 a 1981 estudió una especialización en demografía y en el 1981 defendió exitosamente su tesis de maestría. Como estudiante graduado, trabajó en el Centro de Estudios Demográficos (CEDEM) de la Facultad de Economía en la Universidad de La Habana. Chávez es también un reconocido antropólogo que participa activamente en simposios en Cuba y España. Ha publicado libros en temas como literatura infantil, folklore cubano, antropología y economía. Actualmente vive en Matanzas, Cuba.

Importancia y Contenido

Al participar en la revolución, Chávez coleccionó una cantidad significativa de publicaciones clandestinas, material propagandístico, manifiestos y documentos relacionados a organizaciones insurgentes como el Movimiento 26 de julio, Acción Cívica Cubana y Movimiento de Resistencia Cívica. Siguiendo las ideas prometedoras de Fidel Castro, estos grupos organizaron un golpe de estado contra el presidente Fulgencio Batista; esto dio lugar a la Revolución Cubana. La colección está organizada en quince series. Los materiales de la Serie 1 a la 6 tratan sobre eventos, personas y organizaciones insurgentes partícipes en la Revolución Cubana que culminó el 1º de enero de 1959. Los documentos y materiales de esta serie están fechados de 1951 a 1959 y documentan eventos en diversas ciudades como La Habana, Nueva York, Miami y Caracas.

Las publicaciones clandestinas de la Serie 1 están constituidas por una colección única de zines y boletines anteriores a la Revolución Cubana. Los zines titulados Revolución y Aldabonazo fueron publicados por Vicente Báez y Carlos Franqui. Báez confirmó esta información a la Dra. Lillian Guerra. La serie también contiene 28 números fechados de 1951 a 1956 de Carta Semanal, la publicación semi-clandestina del Partido Socialista Popular. Fue semi-clandestina porque Batista permitió su circulación a pesar de que el partido fue técnicamente criminalizado después de 1953. La razón de esto es evidente en la editorial de la publicación: aunque se afirma que Batista es un tirano, se condenan las estrategias del Movimiento 26 de julio, sus contrapartes y el Directorio Revolucionario para derrocar el régimen de Batista. Las series 2 a 6 incluyen material relacionado al movimiento revolucionario 26 de julio.

Las Series 7 a la 11 documentan la experiencia de Ernesto Chávez como maestro rural, así como la vida política y social de Matanzas. Contienen objetos personales, recuerdos, documentos oficiales, carnets de identidad, cartillas de racionamiento, correspondencia y fotografías. Las cartas enviadas y recibidas por Chávez fechadas desde 1960 detallan su relación con familiares y amigos. La correspondencia también ilustra las condiciones rigurosas que Chávez vivió durante su entrenamiento como maestro voluntario. Las fotografías que Chávez tomó con una cámara Kodak Baby Brownie 127 documentan su experiencia como maestro rural en el campo cubano. Algunas de estas imágenes están incluidas en dos de las publicaciones recientes de Chávez: Maestro rural y Maestro voluntario. La serie de fotografías también incluye una cantidad significativa de imágenes que representan escenas sociales y políticas en Matanzas, así como las relaciones militares entre Cuba y E.U. anteriores a la Revolución Cubana.

La Serie 12 incluye la investigación de Ernesto Chávez sobre la Guerra de Independencia de Cuba. Chávez documentó información sobre los ciudadanos españoles y del personal militar que emigraron de España a Cuba, tales como, nombre, lugar de residencia en España y Cuba, fechas de nacimiento y fallecimiento. También incluyó los nombres de los ciudadanos ejecutados por el ejército español. La Serie 13 incluye los libros que Ernesto Chávez usó como maestro voluntario y como instructor civil en la fuerza armada. Las Series 14 y 15 incluyen colecciones creadas por amigos de Chávez, como la correspondencia personal de Sahara Geraldo Paz, otra maestra voluntaria cubana, y las notas y fotografías producidas por la investigadora Aída García Alonso sobre la vida en las yaguas cubanas.
